Two veteran educators and a promising young student enjoyed rare moments of triumph Tuesday night when they were honored by members of the Phoenix Club during their 10th annual Banquet at West Texas State University.

Dr. Emmitt D. Smith, dean of the College of Education, became the first WTSU ex-student to receive the annual Faculty Excellence Award of $1,000.

Dr. James P. Cornette, president of WTSU, witnessed unveiling of an elegant portrait of himself, to be hung at the university among portraits of his predecessors.

And young Dave Davis, a senior biology student at the University, was named as "Man Of The Year" among members of the WT student body.

Dr. Smith beamed as he told the News, "It's the highest honor I've ever been paid by the people of this area, and I couldn't be happier."

He said the award was important to him "because it was given by my co-workers and friends, and because I join a very select group (the Phoenix Club). Now more than ever I am especially aware of the motivation this group gives the faculty, to serve the community and the region where they live...."

Dr. Smith received a standing ovation by some 350 Phoenix Club members and guests where he received his award.

President Cornette, shortly before unveiling of the portrait, said "All of us here at WT are deeply grateful to all of you (Phoenix Club members) for helping us to have a better school. Nothing gives me more pleasure than getting to see one or more of you and see that you have had good lives—that's

Baker Resigns Post Monday

Carl W. Baker, who has served as Randall County road superintendent for approximately one year, resigned his position Monday.

He took the action following an executive session of the Randall County Commissioners Court, in which his employment was discussed.

County Judge Woody Pond said Baker was not asked to resign his post.

Another county employee, Ray V. Beattie, maintenance man, resigned for reasons of health, Judge Pond said.

Final Concert Set Sunday

Pianist Andree Juliette Brun will present the final program of the Canyon Community Concert series at 3 p.m. Sunday afternoon in the auditorium of Canyon High School.

On her program are Beethoven's Sonata in E flat major, Opus 81a, Brahms' Variations on a Theme by Paganini, Chopin's Addante spianato et Grande, Debussy's "Estampes," "O Prole Do Bebe" by Villa-Lobos, and Liszt's "Hungarian Rhapsody No. 6."

Leopold Stokowski said of the performer "Andree Juliette Brun is a pianist of great technique, imagination, variety of rhythm and originality. She is a fully accomplished artist."

Born in Paris, Miss Brun began her musical studies at the age of 4, upon the advice of Marguerite Long, French Pianist.

Four years later, Miss Long presented her in a first public appearance, a concert at Salle Gaveau in Paris, where she played before an audience which included Maurice Ravel, Francis Poulenc, Alexandre Tcherepnine, and Henri Tomasi.

Her parents decided against a child prodigy career for their daughter and, instead, Miss

Brun spent several years of study under Marguerite Long and Jacques Fevrier and was then admitted to the Conservatoire National de Musique De Paris.

The World War II, she continued studies with Marcel Ciampi, Madame Bascourret de Gueraldi and conductor Poulet. During this time, her family was involved in the underground movement, working with British agents and her father was ultimately arrested for aiding the Allies.

Miss Brun was graduated with honors from the Conservatoire, and made a recital debut after

Commissioners Plan N.Y. Trip

The city manager added that commissioners will depart the Panhandle by air, with some planning to leave late Friday, others Saturday.

The Canyon delegation, before meeting with bonding officials of Moody's Investor Service early Monday will gather in New York Sunday afternoon to plan their presentation of request for higher bond rating. Canyon commissioners will seek to get the current city bond rating of B-aa raised to A.

"We want to convince them that our city operations are in such good status that we deserve a better bond rating."

Mayor Bryan said there is a possibility that Canyon can achieve the highest rating possible, an A-1 rating. "We're going to try for it," he declared.

Cost to the city for travel and lodging expenses will be about $300 per man, Bob Davis the city's financial advisor predicted.

Louder said Wednesday that estimate probably would be close, but that he could not say positively. He said only commissioners and himself will make the trip. Wives will not accompany the officials, as the city has a financial policy of paying only necessary expenses.

Mrs. Wall will speak at 9:30 a.m. on new state laws concerning voter registration, primaries, the general election and party conventions. She is the accepted authority in Texas on election laws, according to Ritter.

The seminar is primarily for county clerks, tax assessor-collectors, party chairmen, election clerks and judges and others concerned with the elections.

Following a luncheon the group will divide into two panels for discussion on Democratic and Republican party rules. The Democratic rules will be discussed from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m., while the Republican rules will be discussed from 3 to 4 p.m.

Savings And Loan Branch Will Open

Panhandle Savings and Loan Association of Amarillo will open a branch office in Canyon not later than June 1, according to president, Jack M. Huddleston.

Huddleston said Friday, Panhandle Savings and Loan has contracted to purchase land at 1901 4th Ave., which was the final requirement for approval of the branch office.

The association will open its office with a staff of three persons and intend to hire two Canyon people initially, he noted.

The Canyon facility will be a full-service branch office offering all of the services offered at any of the association offices, Huddleston stated.

Panhandle Savings and Loan has been represented in Canyon since 1961 but the Canyon branch will be the first out-of-city branch for the association, Huddleston pointed out.

Huddleston said, "Canyon has continued to be one of our leading residential loan areas," and he said Panhandle has a goodly number of savings customers in and around Canyon.

C-C Women Plan Rally

The Women's Division of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce will sponsor Randall County '72 in the Canyon Community Center April 27.

The women have invited political candidates in the county commissioners, the county tax-assessors-collector, the legislative and congressional race to participate.

Each candidate will have two minutes to present a speech. A question and answer period will follow the speeches of the candidates for each office.

The candidates that have accepted invitations are Paul Lindsay, Bob Henry and Raymond Batenhorst for the County Commissioners Precinct 3 race; Bob Slough, Rep. Bryan Poff and Rhett Plank in the Legislature race; and Mrs. Audrey Bruse according to Margo Fields, chairman of the event.

"We are sponsoring Randall County '72, so the people of the county will have a chance to meet these candidates, and find out what they believe and what they are for," said Mrs. Fields.

"The program and time limits are fairly short, so everyone will have a chance to talk to these people on an individual basis," she said.

Substation Approved

Randall County Commissioners Monday approved a request by County Clerk Leroy Hutton to open a substation for absentee balloting for the upcoming primary election May 6 in south Amarillo.

Hutton pointed out that the substation will be needed to handle voters of Randall County including students enrolled at West Texas State University.

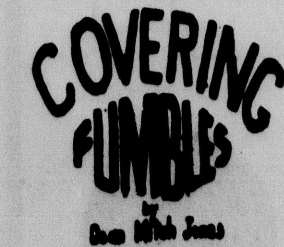

Hutton was authorized to hire an additional deputy clerk should one be needed to assist students in voting on campus-if WT administrators concur with his plan.

Absentee balloting, Hutton said, will begin next Monday.

He said the new substation to be set up at 3806 S. Bowie in Amarillo and the additional deputy clerk will help handle absentee balloting for some 7,000 eligible student voters. Of that total, he said he counted some 3,171 commuting students; 1,738

"New Sound" Is State Day Theme

"It's a Whole New Sound" will be the theme when members of Delta Zeta Social sorority meet for the Province XVII State Day convention Saturday and Sunday in Lubbock.

Hosting the meet will be members of the Canyon, Amarillo and Lubbock alumnae groups and Zeta Zeta collegiate chapter at West Texas State University. Approximately 600 persons are expected to attend.

Convention headquarters will be the Red Raider Inn Convention Center in Lubbock, with registration set to begin at 10 a.m. April 15.

Special guest will be Mrs. Betty Agler of Columbus, Ohio, national executive secretary of Delta Zeta.

Principals Will Attend Meeting

John D. Sommer, principal of Canyon High School, and Dave Corley, principal of the junior high school, will travel to San Marcos April 19 and 20 for a principal's workshop.

The workshop is sponsored by Southwest Texas State University and activities will cover two full days, Sommer said.

Major topic of discussion will be secondary school administration.

He described his early years on his father's farm as "kind of rough and tumble affair." He said he broke some horses, tended stock and once in a while tried to ride some ornery mules. Rodeo, back then, he said, was

The superintendent recalls the early days when he was paid a salary of $95 per month. "That was my first job," he said, as a teacher and coach. And we were paid for nine months, rather than 12.

"Now," he points out, "the beginning salary for teachers in Texas is $6,000 a year."

His hobby is farming, and he raises cotton, milo and wheat and "a few cows."

Supt. Bryan recalled, "When I came here we had our grade school in one building—the building which now houses the agricultural department."

"There have been two major building programs in the school system since I've been here. The high school was remodeled and expanded in 1962, and Happy Elementary School was completed in 1956."

He said the community has no immediate plans for additional new school construction, not organized, as it is today, and cowboys just rode for the fun of it.

At 62, he's glad he came to Happy in 1955.

"It's been rewarding," he remarked, "and very pleasant to

As far as the future is concerned, he said he probably will continue his farming after retirement.

But he said quickly he is not yet ready to retire.

Letter To The Editor

April 6, 1972

Dear Troy:

I have just read your comments in the Canyon Rim of 16 March 1972. Thank the Lord you like my politics.

I am sorry I conveyed the impression of arrogance and aloofness because it's a certainty that a five-foot, five-inch preacher's kid schoolteacher Republican does not have a helluva lot to be arrogant about.

What concerns me more than the fact that my loveable personality does not come through is your noting that you have written me a couple of times on community problems and apparently have not received an answer. If that is the case, it is certainly contrary to my personal policy. We have always felt in this office that we have a solemn obligation to respond to communications from constituents. We get about 3000 letters a week here and, even though I feel I have a very competent staff, occasionally one slips through out fingers.

It would be a great favor to me if you would give me the dates of the letters you wrote me and the subject matter and let me see if I can find out what happened to them. I consider that any community problems that Canyon has which come within the purview of federal responsibility are my problems too.

I do appreciate your ability to divorce your personal feelings from your political.

I do appreciate your ability to divorce your personal feelings from your political judgements. It is a quality too few people possess.

I hope I can hear from you soon.

Best regards,

Very truly yours,
John Tower

Dear Sir:

I feel compelled to come to the defense of my superintendent, my school board, students, and my community as a follow-up of two articles printed in the Canyon Sunday News, April 8, 1972, written by Leward Hood concerning Happy. These articles concerned the question of school sponsorship of a rodeo club for high school youths and feature article on our small town. An unbiased account of both are of vital importance to us as a community—really almost a suburb of Canyon since, for many citizens of Happy, Canyon is our supplementary shopping area, supplies our hospital needs, and receives taxes from the Randall County citizens.

Let me hasten to say that if our school superintendent and school board agreed to study the rodeo question from all its aspects, they will do so in a thorough and fair way and will give the question its honest decision. I have worked with our school board and community for many years, and although I have not always had my way, I have always had the feeling that I was justly considered and professionally treated, and then I abided by the decision of the eight qualified men. After all, that is what we elect a school board for—to represent us in matters that concern everyone. They must consider carefully the question or we would not want them to represent us in our important matters. We need understanding and cooperation from all our citizens, and certainly we are too small for factions and divisions and misunderstanding. I state again that we shall get a thorough study and a fair decision from them. Our students know this also.

As to the article on Happy "Watch Out or You'll Miss It", let me state that it did not fill me with pride as I read it, and I am proud of my town, mine by choice, because I learned in 1947 that when you need help and friends that no where can you find more genuine concern than that which you find in Happy. The entire town rallies when they can be of help in all circumstances. The play on our number of citizens and telephone subscriptions, our "couple of dilapidated buildings", the missing of one of our cafes on the highway, and leaving out our community spirit did not picture my town as I see it.

I am a very unassuming person and have tried to attend to my own business here for thirty-three years, but I consider these pictures of us as a great part of my business. I would like to say much more in behalf of my school, my community, and my people, but it would be too long to print, so thank you.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Vivian Wesley, Principal

BY CAROL CRAIN

ON A RECENT VISIT to Arlington, Marion and Elsie Higdon noticed a rash of bumper stickers advertising "Six Flags Over Texas" and other promoting the new Arlington attraction "Seven Seas".

The townspeople were advertising their own attractions in order to bring in more tourists who would contribute to the income of the area and eventually to the welfare of those bumper sticker toters.

The Higdon's were sporting their own "TEXAS" bumper sticker, of course.

It would certainly be an asset to Canyon if our townspeople would display more and more of the musical drama's bumper stickers as well as "Can-do City" ones. They are available at the Canyon Chamber of Commerce office on 4th Avenue.

Perhaps the clubs in town would send one person in to pick up enough for most of their members. Then, wherever we happen to go we would silently be promoting "Our Town" as we made our way down the highway.

Arlene reports a good trip and a good time.

you interested to know the reason to know them. Can't tell you, except one does have the nicest opportunity to get rid of some Dinero if one is sporting invalid license tags on one's motorcar (and backing down a one way street, the right way.)

Canyon Soldier Aids War — Torn 'Nam

(Ed. Note: This article is the second and final of a two-part series. The initial feature story appeared in Sunday's edition of the News.)

BY LEWARD HOOD

"The first time I was over there, I helped to destroy...now I'm going back to help build."

Those carefully chosen words expressed the strong emotion U.S. Army Maj. John Osborne feels toward his personal and professional missions in South Vietnam.

As commander of an artillery base there back in 1968, he said he had no idea then that his future would involve becoming a teacher — as well as a fighting man.

Maj. Osborne left Canyon Monday to return to his Can Giuoc District headquarters, to a village south of Saigon. There he will complete the remainder of an 18-month tour of duty, begun last November.

In his post as District advisor for some 74,000 South Vietnamese — including inhabitants of 17 political villages composed of some 61 hamlets — the 31-year-old major says his primary goal is to teach a war-battered people how to become self-reliant in a developing climate of private enterprise and individual freedom.

One of Maj. Osborne's prime projects is construction of a fresh water project and system for his district. The water is to replace an old French reservoir system which was partially destroyed during the Communist Tet offensive of 1968.

"We are using a lot of physical labor to renovate the system," he said. This project will eventually cost about $200,000 and upon completion local people will have their own water.

He explained that at present the South Vietnamese in his advisory area purchase their potable water from Saigon merchants. But this, he added, "is highway robbery." He said 100 gallons costs about 1,000 piasters, or $2.50 to $5.

Few Vietnamese can afford such prices, he said, and the new water system will eliminate the problem.

Maj. Osborne's role as teacher also involves the Vietnamese one-crop economy. Rice of course is the mainstay, but the major plans to teach his people how raise mushrooms, for eventual sale elsewhere. "The mushrooms are going in now, and will be ready for harvest soon. We'll take the mushrooms and sell them to Saigon Chinese restaurants."

"They tried this before," he said, speaking of the lighter side, "But the people ate up the mushrooms before they could sell them!" He said that will not happen again if he can help it.

Under his guidance, villagers have completed construction of eight classrooms, within a recent four-month period. These will each house some 100 children, who will go to school in three shifts. The pupil, he said, will average about 3½ hours of classroom study daily, six days a week.

Maj. Osborne spoke of a new "miracle rice which grows very fast and produces much higher yield. Known as 'IR rice', this was developed originally by American agriculturists in the Philippines. It is his job to supervise the planting of the new 'IR'."

The South Vietnamese of his district must, like free people everywhere, maintain intense, constant vigilance against aggression, he continued.

And so his military advisory activity is heavy. He advises a total of nine RF (regional force) companies, and 45 PF (popular force) platoons.

Both military forces are similar to American national guard units; and both are under supervision of the regular Army of South Vietnam.

Maj. Osborne advises a total of 2,500 men.

How does he do all that he has to do?

"I don't sleep much," he said with a laugh.

His personal quarters in Truong Binh are located in a compound surrounded by barbed wire and guarded day and night by sentries. Maj. Osborne noted. South Vietnamese bodyguards accompany him when he travels in dubious territory.

His quarters are situated in the path of an old Viet Cong infiltration route from the south toward Saigon. Also nearby is a swampy area, known a few years ago as "VC haven."

He said there is a continuing threat of activity by the VC underground, called the VCI. He also said he deals with this group more with persuasion than with gunfire as pacification proves effective.

Also under his supervision is the MEDCAP (Medical Civic Action Program) activity in his district. He explained: "We have a MEDCAP team of from 8 to 10 doctors, nurses and aides who serve the medical needs of the people."

"We treat about 600-800 persons at one time, and nobody is ever turned away," the major said. Through use of a helicopter, the MEDCAP teams fly to outlying villages and hamlets where everyone gathers together for inoculation and treatment.

Shots are administered to villagers for protection against plague of any kind, yellow fever and other diseases. Malaria suppressant tablets are dispensed widely on a "people-to-people" basis, from Americans to South Vietnamese, he added.

Maj. Osborne also mentioned the "Land to the tiller" program, designed by South Vietnamese law and patterned after American homesteading. This government program allows the people there to own their own land and till it themselves to achieve personal dignity.

Another of his duties is to assist with a self-help program, the "Sanitary Hamlet Program," wherein water is treated chemically, garbage collection is practiced regularly, and all pets and livestock are vaccinated to prevent serious health hazards.

The future thus holds much promise for the South Vietnamese despite ominous new threats of Communist terrorism, in Maj. Osborne's view.

This career Army man also is a literary man, having long been interested in history.

"I keep a diary and a journal," he said and indicated that he may one day share his impressions and experiences with the world, by writing from the viewpoint of an historian.

But in the meantime, it is his self-proclaimed duty is to share his knowledge — and hence his achievement — with a people striving to be free.

Paleontologists To Meet At WT

The Texas Chapter of the Society of Vertebrate Paleontologists will hold its third annual meeting at West Texas State University this weekend.

"The Panhandle area is rich in classic vertebrate fossil localities," said Dr. Gerald Schultz of the WTSU geology department which is hosting the meeting.

"We will have the leading paleontologists in Texas attending the meeting and touring these fossil sites," he said.

The three-day meeting opens at 9 a.m. Friday with a tour of the Killgore Research Center on campus and a look at the fossil collections there and at the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum.

The paleontologists will visit Palo Duro Canyon which has "excellent exposures of Upper Permian and Upper Triassic beds," Schultz says.

On Saturday the group will visit Pliocene sites north of Clarendon in Donley County and northeast of Miami in Hemphill County. The Clarendon fossil site represents the Lower Pliocene age of 8 to 11 million years ago and the Hemphill stage is of the Middle Pliocene age of 4 to 8 million years ago.

The paleontologists will visit the Rock Creek locality near Silverton and Mt. Blanco near Crosbyton on Sunday. These localities represent Pleistocene age of 1.5 to 3 million year ago.

Schultz says the following society members plan to attend: Dr. John A. Wilson and Dr. Ernest L. Lundelius Jr., both of the University of Texas; Dr. Wann Langston Jr., Texas Memorial Museum, Austin; Bob H. Slaughter and Dr. C. Vance Haynes, both of Southern Methodist University; Dr. Walter W. Dalquest, Midwestern University; Dr. Charles McNulty, University of Texas at Arlington; and Dr. Jack T. Hughes, West Texas State.

In addition, about 25 students from West Texas State, Southern Methodist, Midwestern and the University of Texas plan to attend.

Canyon Boy Wins District Honor

A Canyon member of the Future Farmers of America has been named as District Chapter Farmer for his recent "outstanding" work in agriculture.

He is Raymond Hunter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Hunter, Route 2, Canyon. The youth received the honor during a meeting Monday night of the Amarillo District of FFA, held at Boys Ranch.

Young Hunter is a second-year student in Canyon High School's FFA program. The award, said his instructor, Jim Walker, was given to him for his "outstanding leadership abilities," as well as his FFA projects and skills.

As recipient of the district honor, he will compete for the title of Area 1 Star Chapter Farmer at Area 1 meetings scheduled May 13 at Lubbock, Walker said.

Young Hunter's father operates Hunter's Dairy of Canyon. The youth has been a member of the dairy judging team of the local FFA group, and has "done real well in his work," Walker said.

Also at the Monday Meeting, Walker said, three Canyon FFA members were approved as Lone Star Farmer Award applicants. They included Neil James, James Berry and Scottie Keeling.

Happy Records Rise In Homes

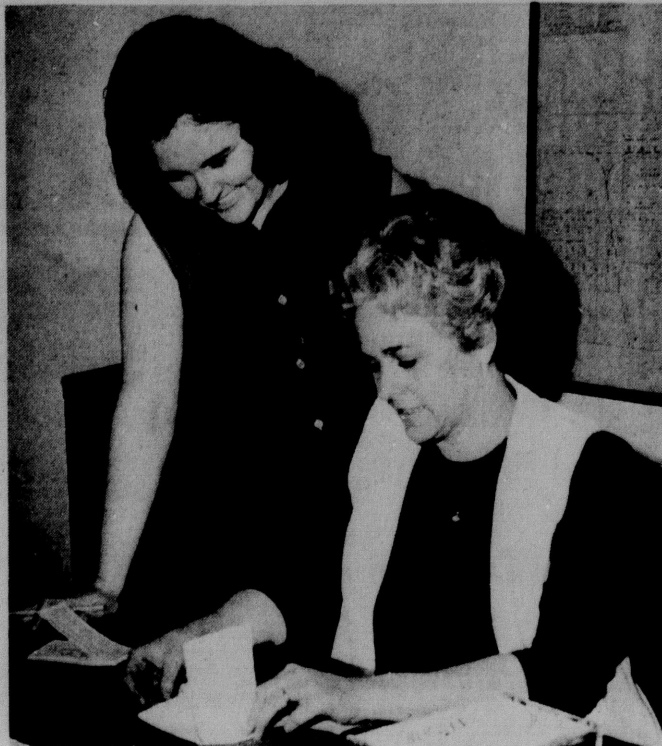

Although there has been no "boom," the city of Happy has enjoyed a steady rise in the number of new homes during the past five years, reports Frank Trety, Happy builder.

"We have built about 20 new homes within the past five years," he said, "and we've got about three more now in the planning stage. We built two last year."

Trety also pointed out that remodeling work on houses in Happy has increased during recent years.

Programmed for the recital will be "Nocturne," a composition by Trio Pianist George Eason, as well as "Trio in B Flat Major," by Mozart and "Trio in D minor" by Schumann.

A LETTER to the PEOPLE of RANDALL COUNTY

Canyon, Texas
April 13, 1972

TO THE CITIZEN'S OF RANDALL COUNTY:

I am seeking election as Commissioner of Precinct No. 3, Randall County's Commissioners Court, subject to the primary on May 6th, 1972. I am not directly involved or interested in any contract with or claim against this county; nor do I represent any person or group of people. I have no axe to grind and only interested in serving all the people of Randall County, and especially Precinct No. 3.

I am 59 years old and have lived in this county 50 years, and the youngest son of Dr. C.E. Donnell, M.D., who practiced medicine here for 24 years. I have had experience in city government, having served as Mayor of Canyon from 1958 to 1960. At the time I took office, the city was broke, and had an indebtedness of over $1,101,000.00. It was placed on a sound basis through the combined efforts of the commission during my term. The city and county both operate under the State Laws of Texas, and are similar in each of its operations. Also have had 35 years of business management experience.

I received a diploma from Canyon High School, and a B.S. Degree from West Texas State University, and 21 hours toward a Master's Degree. A veteran of World War II serving in the United States Marine Corp at San Diego and Camp Pendleton, California, Guam, and Tsingtao, China; received an honorable discharge with good conduct medal in August, 1946. Have served as President of Chamber of Commerce, and received various plaques for outstanding service to my community. Also served as chairman of other boards, and as a working member of other organizations.

As your government of Randall County by eliminating unnecessary expenditures of funds wherever possible. Will keep contact with people across the county and oversee the maintenance of all roads and bridges in my precinct; will help uphold the power and adult probations courts; take a special interest in all juvenile and upkeep of all and in all people; will work to accomplish the greater efficiency in necessary public buildings, and strive for greater efficiency in departments. Also as a member of County's Tax Equalization Board will try to be fair with all property owners. I fully realize the responsibilities connected with this office, and will have time to fulfill my duties.

I want to see common sense used in our government, and want to be a servant of the people. My purpose in life has always been to help others. I have always believed it to be more democratic to disagree than agree on all deliberations, and will express what I believe is right and stand for what I think right and oppose what I believe wrong. I would like to see Randall County always run by Canyon, and County people. In the past years have worked hard for Canyon, and now would like to work hard for my county. I have a clean record and a clear conscience in all of my efforts and will maintain this throughout my life. I will appreciate your vote and support.

Sincerely,
Charles E. Donnell

Police Release A March Report

Canyon Police, in a monthly report issued Monday, said a total of 24 auto accidents were recorded during March of this year.

By comparison, a total of 28 accidents occurred in March of 1971.

Last month, only one injury accident occurred, while two were reported for the same month one year ago.

During March of this year 68 moving violation citations were issued here, along with 47 parking tickets and 28 warning tickets.

In March of 1971, 71 moving violations were logged, with 26 parking tickets and 28 warning tickets, police records showed.

This year, criminal offenses during March totaled 25, including two driving-while-intoxicated cases, three arrests for public drunkenness, five complaints of minor in possession and consumption of alcohol, two burglary cases and five cases of theft.

Also: five runaway youngsters were apprehended; two cases of vandalism were reported, and one man was arrested for failure to appear in court to answer a traffic charge.

Of the 25 offenses reported, police said, 20 were believed cleared by arrest, although convictions have not yet resulted.

By comparison, in March of 1971, a total of 24 criminal offenses were recorded.

Police also reported that during last month traffic fines and fines for misdemeanor offenses totaled $1,641.75. The total collected in state taxes levied on those misdemeanor charges totaled $235.

In addition, the LaGrone Ambulance service made a total of 18 emergency calls last month, with nine of those within the city, and nine involving out-of-city calls. Total cost of the calls was $629, police records showed.

W.A. (Pat) Patton, and Randall County Agent John Brazzil took over Patton's cattle-dipping vat facility, located 11 miles east of Canyon. Upon completion of construction, county ranchers and farmers will be able to rid their animals of dormant scabies germs by dipping them in special disease-destroying chemicals at the site.

C-C Women Hear Louise Evans

Louise Evans of Amarillo former editor of the editorial page Amarillo Globe News Papers, spoke to the Women's Division of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce at a salad dinner-meeting Tuesday night.

Mrs. Evans told the group there is only one type government we can have in America -- self-government

"The reason we have fallen into such disarray is because we have not been responsible citizens. There are no escape clauses in the United States Constitution. We can not set up a dictator or a king," she said.

"We have 2,800,000 working in the federal bureaucracy. These 2.8 million people, over whom you have no control, run this nation and it is because we have not been responsible citizens, because we have not practiced self-government" Mrs. Evans admonished.

She told the group that about 15 years ago the power of the vote went to the women, when they became a majority. "As a generality in Texas only about 50 per cent of the enfranchised (registered) voters vote in Texas. How can you participate in your government if you are not willing to participate in the first grass roots level. If you are not willing to participate in the precinct conventions and willing to vote."

"My contention is that if this Republic goes under, only the women are to blame. Historians writing about it in 1,000 years from will know who to blame--the women." Mrs. Evans concluded

The club discussed Randall County '72 which will be a town meeting where several political candidates will appear to present their views.

4-H Girls Bring Blue Ribbons Home

BY MARY NEAL HENRY

I GOT LOST THREE times on my way to the luncheon Wednesday noon at the Gold Room. Margo ask if I knew where it was and I thought I did, but next time I'll think twice. We had a lovely luncheon and the subscription drive is on. It is very simple! You need to subscribe to the now bi-weekly Canyon News. If you are already a subscriber, it will help if you'll renew your subscription. If your renewal is due, call me, and I'll pick it up. It doesn't count for me unless I take the money to Canyon. Thanks anyway, Myra Nell, for trying!

ALL OUR 4-H GIRLS who went to Lubbock over the weekend to the District Food Show came home with Blue Ribbons. Seniors were Debbie McCarley and Cathy Parker and juniors (division) were Jodi Foster, Lisa Payne, and Brenda Parker. Congratulations! We are extra proud of you because I hear there were plenty of red ribbons passed out.

EVANS HOLLAND WAS taken to Neblett Hospital on Thursday and returned home Sunday. We wish him a measure of health.

I VISITED WITH WILLA about the recent trip that she and Si and Foster and Phyla Harman took to Hawaii. Several from Canyon also went on this trip. They were together on the flight to Honolulu on Oahu Island, but then they rented their own car and took the tours of their choice. Si and Willa toured Pearl Harbor, the Arizona Monument, and Polynesian Cultural Center. They visited the volcanos, Kauai Island, and Hawaii Island. Willa said the scenery was gorgeous and they saw the pineapple and sugar cane fields and the ocean. They also enjoyed the coast line and watching the surfers. One of the prettiest sights was the orchids just growing in people's yards. Willa especially enjoyed the people, she said, "The Hawaiian people are so friendly." She brought home a muu-muu. And said it is quite an experience just flying in a 747.

WELL, THE PRINTER has picked on me two weeks in a row, but you all know that all the Millers didn't have Easter dinner together. They aren't even related. Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Miller entertained Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Miller and the Laval Phippers, who is Mary (Miller) and her family. Mary Jane Miller's family gathering included Loraine and all her family. Mary Jane is in Houston visiting Frances Ann and Glen and their family.

MRS EUTHA HAMBLÉN

reviewed the book she has recently published, "Rim to Rim", to the Sunnyhill and Pleasantview Home Demonstration Clubs. Mrs. Hamblén told why she wrote the book and about events leading up to the writing of the book. She painted the pictures that she wanted you to see in words. She told of all the research she'd done and the people who supplied the information and helped her. She made the book live and without actually telling the story gave you the desire to read the book. I expected to have a house full of people and I did. The program was an excellent one and you really missed something if you weren't here. Judy Shipman was co-hostess and she and I served Texas Pecan Cake and coffee to Amelia Irlbeck, Jeannette Head, Mrs. Stokes, Mary Rice, Janice Cranmer, Martha Goodman, Genelle Dillehay, Eutha Hamblén, Joan Hamblén, Traverne Vermeire, Geraldene Hamblén, Bessie McGehee, Kelly Hurst, Helen Bryan, Dutch Hall, Jo Ellen Harvey, Gwynn Tuck, Bertie Culp, Sharon McCarley, Jo Hand, Maureen Allison, Barbara Danner, and Lou Dougherty.

TEXAS PECAN CAKE

- 1 lb. oleo
- 1 lb. brown sugar

1 tsp. baking powder
1 oz. pure lemon extract
4-5 C. fruit (I use brandied fruit)
1 lb. pecans
Melt oleo, add sugar; cream together. Add eggs. Beat in 2 C. flour and baking powder. Add extract and mix with last 2 C. flour. Fold in Fruit.
Bake 3 hrs. at 225 or 2 hrs. at 275 over water.

BECAUSE OF THE Easter Holidays, the Happy School Board met on Thursday night of last week. New members Faye Hand and incumbent O. H. Rahlfs were sworn in. Burl Sims, Robert Lee, Chan Foster, Lonnie Todd, and George White and Superintendent Sam T. Bryan were also there. They reviewed and paid the bills. The approximate total tax on roll is $245,000 and tax collections are $95,240 complete. Two different lots will soon be sold for tax purposes. Plans were made to attend the school Board workshop to be held in Canyon on April 26. The board reorganized as follows: President, Burl Sims; Vice President, O. H. Rahlfs; Secretary, Robert Lee. The board then moved to another room to meet with about forty or more students and several adults who had come to encourage the school to sponsor a rodeo club. Wendy Sims and Bill Pearson were spokesman for the group. They outlined the rules of the Tri State High School Rodeo Association. These are strict rules and good ones and worthy of the support in any good school system. Kip and Sandy Morgan were there to back the students and offered to be their sponsors. The school board heard the argument for and against Happy School's sponsoring a Tri State High School Rodeo Club. Chan Foster moved that the idea be tabled and the board voted UNANIMOUSLY to do so...until the full high school faculty's feelings were known on the matter.

THE LEAH-RACHEL SUNDAY SCHOOL class of the First Baptist Church entertained the Ruth Sunday School class because they lost an attendance contest. They served a delicious supper Thursday night in the Jaycee Hall and games were played. The two classes had entered an attendance contest six weeks ago and agreed that the losing class would entertain the other class. The Ruth Class was the winner with the largest number of members attending, so the Leah-Rachel class honored them with this special event. Special guests were Brother and

Mrs. Paul Heil and Mr. and Mrs. Hobart McManigal and the husbands of the women in both classes. Willie Butler welcomed everyone and Sam Williams gave thanks to God for the food and fellowship. Members and guests present were: Myra Nell and Everett Culp, Sam and Ann Williams, Leona and Merle McFarland, Gracie and Frank Tiley, John and Willie Butler, Evelyn and Rayford Shipman, Mary Sue and Harold Eakes, Forrest and Ruby Vise, Lonas and Moon Wright, Nora and Dee Taylor, Billie and Wayne Pearson, Wanda and Adrian Bates, Johnny and Lou Parker, Jane and Dozier Thornton, Phoebe and Paul Heil, Anna Mae and Hobart McManigal, Jo Hand, La Nelle Todd, Nan Earle Gauthreaux, Cammilla Greenfield, Lou Nell Mitchell, Mary Jane Miller, Maurine Allison and Lena Bell Cabe.

GWYNN TUCK had a Tupperware party on Friday morning. Ocie Parsons was there, of course, Jo Hand, Rita Tuck, Dutch Hall, Traverne Vermeire, Lou Dougherty, Sharon McCarley, LaNelle Hampton and me. Gwynn surely baked some delicious brownies to go with that coffee. Gwynn and Weldon are in that beautiful new home now and it is pretty!

THE ARTISTS CLUB MET on Friday night of last week. Iva McWilliams of Canyon gave the history of greeting cards and demonstrated painting on parchment paper with acrylics. Greeting cards began about 1860 and Mrs. McWilliams had some to show that were fairly old. Members present were: Aline Adams, Eddie Wilson, Joy Cox, Kathy Moody, Zelma Selvidge, Mary Womack, Irene Hardaway, Ollie Nichols, Gay Fellers, and guests, Carolyn Kimbrell of Happy and Glenna Wilson of Canyon.

GAY FELLERS who lives north and two blocks East of the intersection of Main Street and Highway 87 in Happy has a stray hunting dog. He is white and black spotted, has no collar, but he was in good condition when he came there a few days ago, so she feels he must surely be someone's dog. I used to have hunting dogs here occasionally and the owners were always glad to see them again.

LLOYD AND Susan Rahlfs, and Dottie Foster, and Gene and Judy Shipman, attended the Regional 102 Jaycee Installation Banquet in Childress Saturday night. Dolph Briscoe Jr. was the main speaker. Bill Blackburn who is a former citizen of Happy was Childress's retiring president. Clubs participating in Installation ceremonies were Childress, Paducah, Claude, Wellington. These Installations are fun to make, because you meet people from everywhere. We seldom go anywhere anymore that we don't meet someone we know. Most of these leaders rise to be the leaders of their communities, in later years.

ORA MARY SIMS and I took fourteen girls to Hereford to a joint Rainbow meeting on Saturday afternoon. Those girls attending were Knoxie LeBeau, Pam Shipman, Diane Johnson, Mary Ann Sims, Barbara Dowd, Sandy Railsback, Kay Spear, Rhonda Fellers, Becky Stubblefield, Denise Cope, Debra Jackson, Sheri Henry, Karen and Kim Sims.

I JUST BARELY GOT back in time to meet Willie Butler to go to Amarillo to Bonita's friendship night. They had fried chicken and more good food to eat. The ladies all wore their gingham skirts long and looked really cute. Some of the guests did, too. The program was a comical meeting of the "Country Social Society Club." It was funny! And surprising! One lady missed her chair as she sat down and it wasn't in the script. They put on an outstanding show! It was over early and Willie and I went by to see Victor and Josie Jones. Victor has just returned home from the hospital after having surgery. He is recuperating nicely.

SUNDAY, THE RAINBOW Girls attended the Presbyterian Church in a group. Mary Ann Sims led the responsive reading, Sandy Railsback, a morning prayer, and Debra Jackson read Genesis 9:8-17. All the girls sang "My Rainbow." The girls and sponsors attending were Debra Jackson, Sandy Railsback, Mary Ann Sims, Karen Sims, Rhonda Fellers, Debra and Shirley Penn, Sheri Henry, Barbara and Beverly Dowd, Dian Johnson, Linda Railsback, Becky Stubblefield, Vicky House, Pam Andrews, Knoxie LeBeau, Bonnie Briscoe, Kim Sims, Brenda and Cathy Parker, Shawn Walters, Denise Cope, Jodie Foster, Nancy White, Kay Spear, Connie Hand, Jan Whitlow, Kim McCaslin, Ora Mary Sims, Alden Mann, Nig Taylor, Faye Parker, will be Butler, Lynelle Andrews, Joyce Railsback, Evelyn Dowd and me. We had several guests. Among them were Debbie Parker and Angelique Henry. Most of us ate lunch together at Dolly's in Tulia and enjoyed the company of the Fay Hands, Mrs. Gurley, Sara and Jim Tiley, their Daddy had gone to Army) Louise White, Fernie Spear and our boys, Ken and J.T., Ruth Mann, Catherine Miller, and don't remember everyone.

I MET MY NEW neighbors Sunday afternoon. They are J. K. and Fran Osthus. They have moved here from Olton and have gone to work for the Carl and Carol Sims. Pat and J. C. Malone were there helping them get settled.

LATE SATURDAY, a small group team roped at the rodeo arena. The only thing outstanding about the event was this was the first time our Father-Son team won a jackpot. Tom and Ken came home in a good humor.

CARL AND HELEN BRYAN and Carolyn and Jimmy Dietz attended the Farmers Union Banquet in Amarillo Saturday night. Every County in this District was represented at this banquet. Decorations were red, white and blue, most appropriate for this year. Barefoot Sanders was the guest speaker but this does not mean that he is endorsed by this group. Farmers Union does not endorse any candidate. About two hundred were present for the banquet and social which followed.

ABOUT FIVE VOLLEYBALL teams entered the Tulia Tournament sponsored by the Beta Sigma Phi. Only the Lotta Burger (who is Kirksy) team went to the finals. Happy girls included in that team were Eddie Cope, Suzette Wesley, and Connie Johnson. They lost third place to Suzuki. After having heard about Suzuki that isn't bad at all.

C.E. AND HELEN Hayes with their two boys, Mike and Jack and daughter Suzan Miller, traveled to Port Arthur during Easter vacation to visit Helen's mother.

ON THURSDAY, APRIL 6, Mary Wallace Smith was given a bridal shower at Hope Wilson's. There were numerous hostesses and guests and gifts received. Hope Wilson, Mary Smith and Betty Wallace greeted guests and Sue Wright registered them. Brenda Railsback and Glenda Wilson served from a table decorated with the chosen color of blue and white. Out of town guests included Vera Wallace of Tulia, Beverly Wallace of Amarillo and Kathleen Teel and Barbara Edwards of Tulia.

ALICIA RAY AIRHART and her fiancé, David Scott Pool, were honored with a reception on Sunday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Myers and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Sykes at 6307 Adirondack in the Belmar Addition. Linda Frost and Carol Foster registered guests. Sue and Brenda Railsback poured punch from a table centered with yellow daisies and white carnations. There were numerous callers during the afternoon.

MIKE SIMS AND Jim Whitlow traveled to Clayton, New Mexico with Wendy Sims Saturday for a Tri State High School Rodeo. Wendy entered the calf roping.

DORA RATJEN and June Hancock are in Dallas and Mansfield this week visiting and shopping.

HOPE, GLENDA, AND Michael Wilson and Louise and Nanch White and Ora Mary Sims and Mary Ann ate Pizza in Canyon Friday night the fishermen left.

THE JUNIOR HIGH GIRLS track team went to

Canyon Saturday. They ranked fourth with 47 points. Nancy White won third in the 80 yard hurdles and fifth in the 60 yard dash; Vickie House won third in the 44 yard dash; Connie Hand won first in the discus and second in the shot put; the 44 relay team won fourth; and the 88 yard relay team won fifth. We are proud of you girls.

JUDY SHIPMAN'S CUB SCOUT group played ball at the ball park last Thursday. The Thursday before that they had picked up trash around the ball park. Good Guys!

GLADYS HALEY AND I ran over to Silverton Monday night to their Eastern Star Friendship night. They had a salad supper (some type ham loaf with cherry sauce) that was delicious and the program was a musical group, the fourth grade sang several numbers. A Mr. Lanham is their instructor and he drew their praise. The children really sang for him. Bob Ann Wheelchel, Dora Ratjen's granddaughter, was in the group. We saw Daisy Burson. You'll remember her. And lots of other friends. Canyon, Tulia, Lockney, Quitaque, Plainview, Floydada were all represented. Probably some more were that I don't remember. I was visiting instead of writing. Mary Ann and Charles Sarchet are Silverton's Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron and they also publish the newspaper at Silverton.

THE THING I'VE enjoyed most about the last few days has been the opportunity to visit with so many people.

See ya!
Mary Neal

Flanked by flowers given her by Canyon 1, and plans open house Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m. She said Canyon people are the "friend-welcome tourists and visitors at the Trail Motor Hotel. She purchased the motel April 1st," she's known.

Canyon Motel Operates Under New Ownership

Open house festivities will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday at the Trail Motor Hotel, 1901 23rd St., now open under new ownership and management.

Piano Program Is Planned

Pianist Carolyn Baker Sims, West Texas State University senior from Canadian, will be featured in a recital at 5 p.m. April 20 in the Fine Arts Building. Programmed for the recital, which is free, are Beethoven's "Sonata No. 1 in C minor," Scaratti's "Sonata in F minor," Mendelssohn's "Song Without Words, No. 3 in G minor" and Robert Starer's "Sketches in Color."

Mrs. Sims is a member of Tau Beta Sigma, national band sorority, Alpha Chi, national honor society, and Mu Phi Epsilon, international music sorority of which she has served as historian and vice president.

Her recital is being presented in partial fulfillment of degree requirements for a Bachelor of Music Education Degree.

Wanda Walsh, owner and manager, urged all Canyon citizens to visit the motel during those hours to inspect the rooms and suites, and to enjoy coffee and donuts.

Mrs. Walsh purchased the motel April 1 from former owners, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Runyan.

Mrs. Runyan after purchase of the motel was announced said she wished to thank the citizens and businessmen of Canyon for "everything they did for us," while she and her husband operated the hotel.

Mrs. Walsh said, "I'm very enthused over Canyon, and I've had a very good welcome. I want people to see our rooms, many don't realize just how nice they are. I do plan to serve a continental breakfast, on a self-help basis, maybe within a month. This will take a little rearranging."

Mrs. Walsh, who has managed motels in Hereford, Abilene, Shamrock, and Lamar, Colo., in the past, said this is her first motel purchase. Her assistant is Mary Hughes. Her 12-year-old daughter, Beverly, will be attending Canyon schools.

Mrs. Walsh also has a son, Randy, 23, who is serving in the U.S. Marine Corps. at Camp Pendleton, Calif. She noted that he recently received head injuries in Pendleton rodeo, and is now hospitalized there. The son sustained head injuries when his foot hung up while saddle-bronc riding, she said.

She arrived in Canyon following an emergency trip to California to visit her hospitalized son.

Mrs. Walsh also has a 21-year-old daughter, Margie Warren, who is married and living in Kearney, Neb., and a 14-year-old son now attending school in Brownlee, Neb.

She is a native of Nebraska, and is a former school teacher, rural mail carrier and operator of a Nebraska general merchandise store and hotel.

"I've done a little bit of everything," she laughed. She's no newcomer to the world of business and said, "I think all businesses in Canyon should work together and I expect to do my share (to help Canyon grow)."

Palisades Palaver

BY VICKI HOOKER

JOELLE WALKER WAS NAMED Woman of the Year last week for the Palisades Home Demonstration Club. JoDelle has served as president for the club this year and has done an excellent job. She has been in the club since it started and has served in various capacities, one of which was Council Delegate. Being such a diligent worker has made the club a very important facet of Jo's life and as she said, "The Club means so much to me. I look forward to each meeting."

JO-DELLE IS A member of the Unity in the High Plains Church in Amarillo and is a wife and a mother of three: one boy and two girls. She is a housewife who loves and enjoys her home, and is always thinking of new ways to improve it.

JO WILL RECEIVE A silver bon-bon dish with her name and "Palisades Woman of the Year" engraved on it and a corsage at the Randall County Home

Demonstration Clubs' May Day Luncheon. A very modest person JoDelle could only comment, "I do so appreciate the club giving me this honor. I am very pleased but also a little embarrassed."

OFFICERS WERE ALSO elected at the meeting last Thursday at Lena Edwards. They are president, Nell Moore; vice president, Beverly Norman; secretary, Marcella Carlile; council delegate, Valerie McClendon. These ladies will not assume the responsibilities of their offices until September, but congratulations to you gals, anyway. I know next year will be as exciting and profitable as this year has been.

I DID A LITTLE eavesdropping at the meeting and found out that Valerie McClendon and her three children, spent their Easter vacation with Valerie's family in Irving. She said that they really didn't do much but catchup on their visiting, and that grandparents spent most of their time playing with and admiring grandchildren.

ALSO MARY OLIVER, who lives on Palisades Road, and her children spent two or three days over Easter with Mary's mother, Mrs. Raymond Koontz, in Vernon. Mary teaches piano and wanted to announce that she will have a recital in her home April 28 at 7:00 p.m. Beginners who will play will be Susan Inman of Palisades, Todd Walker, of Holiday South, and Billy and Jody Cunningham of the Claude Highway. Debbie Moreland who lives on McCormick Road will also play. She is one of Mary's more advanced students.

IT MAY BE A little late for this, but we would like to express deepest sympathy to Estelle and Annie Atkinson in the death of their dear friend, Anna Taylor, who lived in Amarillo. Estelle and Annie were like family to her, and Estelle said that she had either seen or talked to Anna (they called her "Aunt Anna") every day for the past several years. We know that her passing away has created a great emptiness in their lives because they were so close to her.

LUM AND LENA EDWARDS will be leaving Saturday for a fishing trip in Arkansas. It will be their first outing in their new van. We hope they have a very relaxing and very safe trip and they make it back in time for the picnic on May 13. They said once they get started they may not be back for a while!

DOUG HOOKER, SON OF Charles and June Hooker, has been in Northwest Texas Hospital since last Friday. He is having some tests made to determine the cause of the severe headaches he has had since mid-November. So far, the doctors have not come to any definite conclusions, but Doug seems to be doing better and we hope he is released soon and that his headaches are nothing serious. June has been keeping Doug and Ginger's children, Amy who is two, and Chuck, 5 months. During their stay with "Nanny" and "Papa", Amy has learned to say, "I'm Papa's shadow in the Palisades!" And that's the truth! Everywhere he goes, she's trailing right behind.

JOAN TUCKER'S FATHER, MR. T.A. Stephens, was released from the hospital last Thursday after suffering a severe heart attack. Joan says he's doing much better, and we're glad to hear that.

LAST MONDAY NIGHT WAS board meeting night at Joyce McDonald's. Many topics were tossed around, but one definite decision was made. This weekend will be "Work Days", beginning at 8:00 Saturday morning. All who are available should meet in the park. The first project will be to fill in the holes in the pavement, not that they need it or anything! If enough men come and the weather holds out, they hope to work on the box-car bridge some too. So everyone—don your work clothes and come on out. The board needs all your assistance.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY to Jack Inman. Tomorrow is his special day.

HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB, members will meet in the park next Thursday at 11:30 for a luncheon and workshop on making bread dough flowers, to be demonstrated by Beverly Norman. If the weather doesn't permit a park meeting, then we will meet at June Hooker's. Everyone come and bring a dish for the luncheon. Some bread and glue. Should be lots of fun!

THANKS TO EVERYONE who has helped me so far in the subscription campaign. I really do appreciate all your support. If you know of anyone who may be interested, give me a ring at 622-1439. I'll be happy to oblige!

HAVE A good week!

HD Agent Gives Buying Tips

By BECKY HALL
Randall County Home Demonstration Agent

In the fresh form, most fruits and vegetables are more plentiful and better buys at certain seasons of the year than at others. Usually they are highest in quality and lowest in price during the season of greatest abundance.

The only way to choose between fresh, canned, frozen, and dried forms of the same fruit or vegetable is to calculate the cost of a serving. In general, frozen foods have about the same food value as fresh foods, may have lost a substantial part of the vitamin value of fresh products.

If fruit and vegetable costs are running high, it will pay to watch market reports more closely and figure the cost per serving of various members of the same group. In most markets at most times of the year, potatoes, cabbage, carrots, turnips, onions, canned tomatoes, dried beans and peas, and some form of green represent good buys in the vegetable line. Similarly, apples, bananas, either oranges or grapefruit or their canned juice, and dried prunes tend to be the fruit staples.

When figuring the cost per serving of fruits and vegetables count as one serving: 1/2 cup of vegetable or fruit; or a portion as ordinarily served, such as 1 medium apple, banana, orange, or potato, half a medium grapefruit or cantaloupe, or the juice of one lemon. The "Food For Fitness" Guide, a daily food guide, USDA leaflet no. 429, recommends you choose four or more servings every day, from fruit and vegetable group; including one serving of a good source of vitamin C or 2 servings of a fair source. One serving, at least every other day, of a good source of vitamin A. Good sources of vitamin C foods include grapefruit or grapefruit juice, cantaloupe, orange or orange juice, raw strawberries, broccoli, brussels sprouts, green pepper, sweet red pepper. For some good sources of Vitamin A consider dark green and deep yellow vegetables and a few fruits, namely: apricots, broccoli, cantaloupe, carrots, chard, collards, cress, kale, mango, persimmons, pumpkin, spinach, sweet potatoes, turnip greens and winter squash.

Some suggestions in selecting fruits and vegetables—Whatever fruit or vegetable you are buying, look first for freshness. When selecting oranges, grapefruit, lemons and pineapples, choose those heavy for their size. Ripe pineapples have a fragrant, fruity aroma. Some pears, especially winter varieties, are marketed when slightly under-ripe and need to be ripened at home—at room temperature. Pears are ripe and ready to eat when they yield slightly to moderate pressure.

Select lettuce heads that are green, fresh, crisp, and fairly firm to feel. Head lettuce should be free from rusty appearance and excessive outer leaves. Choose cabbage heads that are firm and heavy. Outer leaves should be fresh, green, and free from wormholes. Best quality celery is fresh and crisp. It is clean and has leaves that appear fresh; stems do not have black or brown discoloration. Avoid pithy, woody, or very stringy celery.

Tomatoes should be plump, firm, and uniformly pink, red, or yellow in color. They should be free from growth cracks, scars, and bruises. The best flavored tomatoes are ripened on the vine.

For more information, see Home and Garden bulletin 141, "How To Buy Fresh Fruits" and 143, "How To Buy Fresh Vegetables". They are available without charge from the Extension Office.

Two Men Sentenced In District Court

Michael Ray Mason, 21, was sentenced to serve a term of not less than five years nor more than 10 in state penitentiary Monday in the 47th District Court of Judge Gene Jordan. The sentence was to run concurrently with previous sentences on other felony charges.

Judge Jordan also revoked his 10-year probation, set in 47th District Court in 1969 following conviction on a statutory rape charge.

Mason, until brought into Judge Jordan's court, had been serving time at Huntsville on two felony charges of possession of marijuana and possession of narcotic paraphernalia; Mason was convicted in Harris County on those two charges in November of 1971.

Mason was remanded to custody of the sheriff for return to the state penitentiary.

Raymond Dwayne Gastin, 17, of Amarillo, was assessed a four-year probation sentence in the same court Monday, after pleading guilty to a charge of burglary by breaking and entering.

Judge Jordan sentenced Gastin after he waived indictment and entered his guilty plea. Gastin had been arrested and charged in connection with the April 6 burglary of Ridgcrest Elementary School in Amarillo.

Actors To Repeat Plays

Repeat performances of a Spanish comedy and a French farce will be presented by the Modern Languages Department at West Texas State University at 8 p.m. today in the Intimate Theatre of the Fine Arts Building.

Spanish students will offer "La Presidenta," the story of a woman of high ambition and another of none. Cast members are to be Marguerite Empie, Sue Thompson, Marie Mora, Eva Ibanez, and Maria Mendoza.

"La farce du cuvier," which tells the story of a downtrodden husband's revolt against wife and mother-in-law, will be the French students' contribution. In the cast will be Sherry Carpenter, Karen Curry, and Matthew Stroud. Becky Horst is director.

Admission is 50 cents.

Annual Prom Held At WTSU

Some 200 youngsters and guests attended the annual Canyon Schools' Junior and Senior Prom, held last Saturday in the ballroom of the West Texas State University Activities Center.

John D. Sommer, principal of Canyon High School, said a musical group called the "Blackwater Draw" provided the music for the gala occasion.

Theme of the prom this year was centered around Hawaii and included a seashore atmosphere. Bill Moore, president of the junior class, gave a short welcoming address during the banquet, held in the east cafeteria.

Police Note Bike Thefts

Canyon Police said this week they believe a bicycle theft ring is operating in the city.

Police are seeking suspects who are believed to be selling locally stolen bikes in Amarillo. Officers urged bicycle riders to lock their vehicles to fixed objects to prevent theft, and also to remember serial numbers, so that police will "have something to go on."

Within the past month, some seven bikes have been reported stolen.

Autos Are Hit In Burglaries

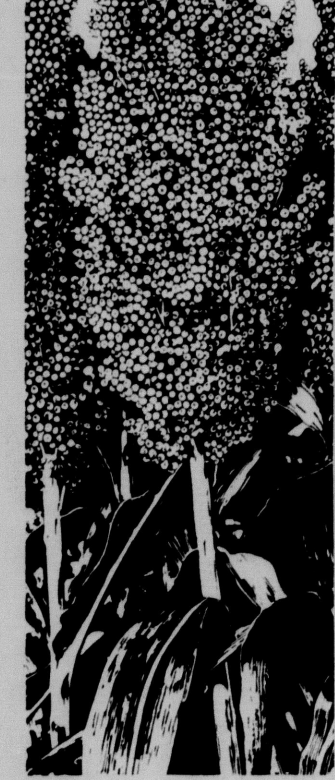

Two autos were burglarized last week in Canyon, and the thieves got away with more than $250 worth of stereo tapes. Police Chief Alan Stewart reported Monday.

S. T. Rendon of Denver City told officers someone entered his car and took some 30 tapes; his auto, he said, was parked at 2701 5th Ave.

Larry Couzzourt, Apt. 15, Chateau Apartments, said thieves removed 20 tapes from his vehicle, parked near his residence.

No evidence of forced entry could be found in either burglary, police said, warning motorists to lock their parked vehicles to prevent additional incidents.

Girls' Groups Take Swimming Lessons

BY TOOTIE BYBEE

HOWDY, ONCE AGAIN FROM our little oasis to you wherever you just might happen to be at this time. Hope your week has been a happy and busy one. We've all been busy out this way on all sorts of little projects and activities. So, from us to you here is a little news:

OF COURSE YOU ALL know about the BIG CONTEST Canyon News is sponsoring. WELL, I would love to sell you a subscription or renew your current one so just keep that in mind and give me a call at 622-1471 and I will buzz right over with my book.

THE BLUE BIRDS and Camp Fire Girls are all taking swimming lessons now every Tuesday at the YWCA. They should all be ready for the summer fun and camp with the new skills they are all learning. They will of course, earn badges for this and perhaps a few of them will earn heads.

THE SCOUT-A-RAMA was certainly a big success and it is so very interesting to see all the different things the kiddoes are involved in. No matter what you may think, youth work can never be anything but one of the most rewarding things a person can do. To see all those kiddoes all performing skills and activities they have learned is really something.

A GREAT BIG special thank you to all those leaders and adults who helped so much with this worth while activity. Especially to Betty Brasell who directed the Camp Fire Girls section of the Scout-A-Rama, and to her group of girls who gave their whole weekend to participate.

THE LADIES THURSDAY CLUB meet in the home of Shirley Jones to work on crafts and different projects and to have lunch together, which I heard was just great. They also took time out to run over to the Minor's to see the new little one, Marcy, and to take Joyce a pretty bunch of yellow flowers. Sorry I missed the fun, but had company of my own this week.

THE MILLERS TOOK A little trip over the Easter holidays to McLean to see David's sister who was there from Tulsa. David, Trucille, Vickie and Terry, heard they really enjoyed the visit.

HEARD THAT JOE GILLIS was approached by the Harley-Davidson Motorcycle racing team to race for them when he's old enough. That's a real honor.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO Brooks Ross who is 39 and holding.

CONGRATULATIONS TO SUSAN ROSS who was married March 17 to Mike Trammell. They are selling Catahpa puppies which they tell me are bred to work cattle. If you are interested just give them a call at this number - 622-1800.

THE ROGERS' OLDER SON, David, along with wife Bobbie and baby Charles have left and will be stationed at Ft. Bragg. Here's hoping David is home to stay and won't have to return to Viet Nam again. The Rogers family took a little time off and just had a fun trip last week. They went to see Mrs. Rogers Mom and Dad who have retired and live at Davenport about 40 miles northwest of Austin. They brought back some pictures of the lovely bluebonnets and they are sure pretty in full bloom. Sure wish we had a few down this way. They also visited Marble Falls.

THE GILGILLISES had a houseful of visitors this weekend. Gil's brother and family Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gillis from Garland, Texas were here and daughter Sis.

THE BARRONS LEFT this week for a week's visit to their cabin to do some fishing and Mrs. Barron some painting.

MRS. PATTERSON AND DIANE went to see Toby over the Easter holidays and then on to Corpus Christi to visit with the older son for a week.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE BOREN s on the birth of their new grandson, Christopher.

WENT OVER AND VISITED WITH MRS. Louellen Alley

Soldier Is Home While On Leave

PFC Richard N. (Rusty) Peery this week is home on leave, following training at the U.S. Army's Fort Jackson, S.C. base. The soldier will leave Canyon April 17 for a 13-month tour of duty in Korea.

While in Canyon, he is visiting his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. J. Frank Peery and his sister, Stephanie.

He has received commendations as sharpshooter in 90-milimeter recoilless rifles, expert marksman in M-16 rifles and the 106 recoilless rifles and 45-calibre pistols. He took special training in the TOW missile program.

During the upcoming tour of duty in Korea, he will serve as instructor in the use of the TOW missile, and will receive special training in the Army's Ranger program.

The Canyon High School graduate received the National Defense Medal before leaving Fort Jackson recently.

this week. That is Mrs. Buckles' mother who moved in the other end of the new addition of the Buckles home. My, my, that house is sure nice. Carpeted basement and all, it is so nice and so is Mrs. Alley. You all must get to know her, she is so nice. So many pretty flowers and plants she has bought to put out. I told her I loved her because she loves flowers and so do I. She has made so many pretty things with her knitting also. So happy she has moved into our little oasis.

THE BURDETTE'S HAD THEIR son from Arlington visit with them this weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Baylen Burdette. Also, I was told they have a new litter of puppies, in fact 6 new little "Barney's".

GLEN AND JUNE VAN Landingham had a very exciting weekend. They belong to the 4-Wheelers Club, which is made up of people having 4-wheel drive vehicles and they all take trips to different places together and enjoy the up and down driving. The club took a trip this weekend to what is known as the "Little Sahara" at Waneka, Oklahoma. They played in the sand hills and had races and really had a good time. June said there were motorcycles and dune buggies and all sorts of fun things there. They didn't know it till they got there but it was the annual rattlesnake round up for that part of the country, and she said the boys camping next to them came in with two great ole big rattlesnakes and she was all ready to come home.

THE GENEWEBB SUPON McCormick also went along and several others from this area. They met a bunch of other club members there and just had a big conclave.

SAW ALL KINDS OF activities going on around the park this past weekend. New trees being planted, rototilling getting done, new fences being worked on, garden work started, lots being burned off and neighbors just being neighborly across the fences. Guess you might call April clean-up and fix-up month and get acquainted month too.

SOME OF THE DIFFERENT CANDIDATES running for County Commissioner for this precinct have been around visiting with us, it is my sincere wish that each of you might question them thoroughly about their stand on some of the problems that face us here in our little community. I don't want to know what they are going to do for another community, what will they do to provide better roads for us etc. Get with it you guys and don't let them get by with just making a favorable and friendly impression on you, ask a few questions and as far as I'm concerned "I don't know" won't do for an answer to some of the things facing us here!!!

OUR FEATURED FAMILY THIS week is the Leroy Evans at 111 XIT Trail Barbara and Leroy were raised in Brownfield. Leroy builds churches (Now, isn't that a high calling) and has built over the years some beautiful ones.

BARBARA IS A HOUSE WIFE and Mother to Sherry, 15, and Glenna 13. Leroy is a deacon in our church so I can vouch for him, if you can trust my judgement. Barbara is also very active in church work and teaches the 5&6 grade girls in Sunday School and is GADirector as well. In their spare time they like to garden and always raise a very beautiful and productive garden. Barbara also sews and is really an expert at that, with two daughters you have to be. They are another couple who I consider a privilege to call "Friend and Neighbor."

WELL, HERE'S A LITTLE OLE recipe that is new and thought you might enjoy having it and it come to me by way of Deann Cooper and thank you to her.

COOKIE BAR
1 c. sugar
2 sticks oleo
1/2 c. milk (canned milk)
1 egg beaten
Boil all this one minute then add to this:
1 c. nuts
1 c. coconut
1 c. vanilla
1 tsp. crushed graham crackers (about 12)

LINE COOKIE sheet with graham crackers and cover with the mixture and spread all over crackers then top with another cracker and cut into bars.

Good, good.
WELL, TIL NEXT time, guess I'll say so long again. I'm about to run down on all this typing and I'm the world's worst typist any way.

ONE MORE THING: to Mrs. Paul Tracy Cooper: You haven't gotten the last "BOO" yet.

Umbarger News Youth To Aid Drive

BY SUSAN DOLLE

YOUNG PEOPLE FROM community will be knocking on doors this Sunday to help with the Cancer Drive held in April by the Texas Division of the American Cancer Society. Working in pairs, they will be wearing a Volunteer Badge for identification; every dollar you give will be used by the Cancer Society for these purposes: $.36 for cancer research; $.10 for professional education, fellowships and service; $.18 for public education; $.23 for service to patients; $.05 for development of program and administration; and $.08 for the campaign. Hopefully, the American Cancer Society will work itself out of business, once these funds can help find the cure for the disease.

served to approximately 180 branch members and their families.

THE FIRST AID course offered by the Canyon Fire Department and completed last week was taken by members of the Umbarger Fire Department. The men are required to renew their advanced first aid cards every three years through a new course. The instructions were given by Joe Rice to John, Ed, and Bernard Grabber, Larry Wynn, Milt Suthers, Paul Ferguson, Jack Brandt, Willie Wick and Ray Gerber. The course is sponsored by the American National Red Cross, Randall County unit.

MR. AND MRS. TOMMY Brock returned last week from a trip to Las Vegas. Accompanying them were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Pope of Dawn. Besides spending several days in Las Vegas, the group also toured Hoover Dam.

PUTTERING IN HER green house is one of the hobbies of Mrs. Tom Payne. Shirley has tried petunias and carnations before, and she has an orange tree which is touching the ceiling. The non-blooming tree was planted from a seed three years ago. Presently she is growing many tomato plants which she will sell for a nominal fee.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN VOERWALD and daughters Mary and Joan of Salida, Colo. were in Umbarger for the weekend visiting the Batenhorst families. This summer the Voerwalds will tour Germany for twenty-six days where they will visit their son Lloyd.

OTHER ISSUES OF THE Canyon News have told of the drive for more subscriptions to the newspaper. If any out-of-towners wish to receive the paper, please drop me a line at Box 7, Umbarger 79091. I will be happy to take your order and will be most appreciative of the points added to my score in the contest.

CHS Golf Team Will Go To AAA Zone Play-Offs

The Canyon High School golf team will battle in the zone play-offs with Muleshoe in Plainview Saturday for the District 1-AAA title.

The Eagle linksters won the northern zone with a 955 total, while Muleshoe captured the southern zone with a 1,001 strokes.

"The Plainview course is about average, but it is pretty long and has greens about the size we are used to. The course is more tailored to high school competition than some we have been playing on the past few weeks," said head coach B. B. Kendrick.

In the northern zone competition, which was held here, the Canyon quintet ripped off a seven stroke lead over Perryton and Dumas. The next week at Dumas, Perryton and Canyon tied, thus maintaining the seven stroke Eagle lead. Three weeks ago in Perryton, Canyon and Perryton golfers tied again, giving Canyon the northern zone championship. Perryton finished with a 962 total and Dumas had 1,025 strokes in the three round affair.

Mike Shadix was the medalist in that zone with rounds of 75, 76 and 77 for a 228 total. Joe Ziegler was the second high with a 231 total.

That Canyon duo will play Kenny Taylor of Muleshoe and Gary Travis of Levelland for district medalist honors in Plainview.

"Muleshoe is going to be tough. They have four of their five team members returning from last year," said Kendrick. But the Canyon golfers in a tournament held here earlier in the year whipped the Muleshoe team by 17 strokes. Last weekend at Amarillo, however, the Muleshoe team shot four strokes better than Canyon. "Last weekend we just shot terrible," said Kendrick. "I feel like we will do much better this week in Plainview."

Regardless of how the playoff turns out in Plainview this weekend both teams will journey to the regional playoffs in Andrews April 21.

FFA Will Hold Award Banquet

Members of Canyon High School's Future Farmers of America will hold their annual achievement Banquet at 7:30 p.m., April 20, in the High School cafeteria.

Jim Walker, FFA instructor, said primary purpose of the banquet is: "to honor parents of our students, parents who have cooperated with us so well."

WE STOCK BOTH FAST AND SLOW SELLERS

Recent news stories told how supermarkets and discount firms are telling manufacturers: "Sell us only your fast sellers. We are weeding out all others." Their reason is that the small amounts sold of slow sellers are not profitable.

This is true, but sometimes slow selling products can be very important to the persons who need them. There are hundreds of them in our pharmacy that sell only about a dozen of each a year. We buy only a quarter of a dozen at a time and re-order when they are sold. Our reputation is to have whatever you ask for. If we don't have your favorite, tell us.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound and dispense yours?

Officers Are Re-Elected For Co-Op

Melton McGhee of Wayside has been re-elected to serve a three-year term on the board of directors of the Mid-Plains Rural Telephone Cooperative, Inc. Two other directors continue to serve on the board, Earl Reynolds of Canyon and Joe Wick of Umbarger.

Other members of the board include Bayard Sadler of Vigo Park, Earl Cantwell of Silverton, H. M. Kinsey of Happy, Clyde Wilkins of Tulia, Bruce Fields of Arney, Emery Goodin of Goodnight, Clint Robinson of Kress, and president Victor L. Harman.

During a meeting last week members of the cooperative were told that system-wide single-party service to replace all party lines "could be closer than had been originally planned."

THE SNORKEL MAKES CANYON SAFER

Our community has one of the best volunteer fire departments in the state. This includes both men and equipment. The snorkel, bought primarily to protect high rise dormitories at West Texas State University, was used to good advantage in the recent motel fire here. Canyon is indeed fortunate to have the excellent fire fighting facility at our disposal.

WT Radio Station Begins Operation

Radio KWTS is on the air. The new West Texas State University station began broadcasting at 4 p.m. Wednesday after the Federal Communications Commission had given approval.

Miss Bowes Is FBLA Student

Lynn Bowes was named Student of the Month for March by the Future Business Leaders of America at Canyon High School. A senior, Miss Bowes is a member of the 1972 Class AAA girls' basketball championship team for Texas. She has played basketball for the Girl Eagles throughout her high school years. She is also a member of Future Teachers of America and the National Honor Society. She plans to major in accounting at Texas Tech University.

WTSU Cage Duo Drafted

Steve Davidson, West Texas State University's all-time leading rebounder, and team captain Ralph Houston were drafted Tuesday in the National Basketball Association draft. Davidson went in the seventh round to Cleveland and Houston was a ninth round pick by Chicago. The Chicago team will wait one year for Houston, who has another year of play slated for the Buffaloes.

The 6-7 Davidson, who will play Saturday at Lafayette, La., in the Southern Shooting Stars All-Star game which matches the top collegiate seniors from for operation of the 10-watt FM station, to broadcast from 91.9 megahertz on the radio dial.

KWTS will operate seven days a week, from 4-11 p.m. during the fall and spring semesters. Robert Sanders, speech instructor reported that a prospective summer broadcast program has not yet left the tentative planning stage.

WT journalism students will serve as members of the station's news department, with news programs slated for 4 p.m., 6 p.m., 8 p.m., with sports at 5 p.m., 7 p.m., and 9 p.m.

From 4-7:30 p.m., the music format will include top-40 tunes and country and western music, and from 7:30-9 p.m. "middle-of-the-road" programming will be featured.

Stan Harlan, student in the program, said the station needs records to play on the air. Students or citizens may donate records by stopping by the KWTS radio rooms located in the Fine Arts Building.

The station, he and Sanders said, will also program recorded music on loan from individuals or other sources. Too, the station will purchase records with funds donated by supporters of KWTS.

Buffaloes Compete In Wichita Relays

West Texas State University's track team, after its finest showing in the Texas Relays last weekend, competes Saturday in the Wichita State Relays against four other collegiate teams.

The Buffaloes of coach Bob Kitchens compete Saturday against Wichita State, Arkansas, Tulsa and the Air Force Academy.

Carl Brown placed second in the Texas Relays behind former world record holder Thomas Hill. Brown ran 14.0 and Hill had a 13.9 clocking. That race was run into a 10-mile per hour wind.

Kirk Johnson, the big freshman from Aledo, placed fifth in Austin with a school record 174.5 effort in the discus.

Kitchens is working this week on several injury problems. Sprinter Jesse Lethridge and quarter-milers Tracy Dickson and Steve Cone all have muscle problems in their legs and their condition for Saturday's meet is not yet determined. Vaulter Warren Snow, who turned an ankle last week in practice and didn't compete in Austin, is also questionable.

With the injuries, Kitchens is worried over his team's chances of making a bid for the title at Wichita. Not only could the injured athletes not be well by that time, but their injuries would also reflect on the Buffalo relay teams.

Canyon's Turpin On Winning Cast

Steve Turpin of Canyon was a member of the all-star cast of one-act play competition in the recent District AAAA University Interscholastic League Play Contest at West Texas State University, held on campus.

Turpin was among nine students from area communities named Thursday as members of the all-star cast.

Buffalo Baseballers Open Home Schedule

After rolling up a 14-6 record away from home, West Texas State's baseball team opens its home season at 3 p.m. Friday in Amarillo's Potter County Stadium against Hardin-Simmons.

The same two teams will clash Saturday at the same site in a doubleheader, starting at 1 p.m.

The Buffaloes hit the ball at a .297 clip this year in their first 20 games and are led by Jim Albracht, who has a .436 average. Albracht divides time in right field with pitcher Kenny Grounds, who is hitting a .347 clip.

Kerry Morgan, in appearances as both a pitcher and outfielder, is hitting .409.

The biggest stick among regulars is third baseman Lanny Phillips, who is hitting .395 with 20 runs batted in. He also leads in most of the extra base departments with seven doubles, two triples and two home runs. The Odessa sophomore has seven stolen bases to also lead in that department.

First baseman Allen Runyan carries a .358 average. Rick Hammerick, in limited appearances as in infielder, is hitting .308. Second baseman Rick Rusten is hitting .302.

Catcher Jerry McVickers, who has worked in 16 games, is hitting .298. Catcher-outfielder Willie Taylor has a .294 average and left fielder Tony Cazzelle is hitting .293. Shortstop Dean Parker has a .280 mark. Mark Stanley, who has played a pair of outfield positions when he is not pitching, has a .275 average.

Charles Crouch, junior left-hander, has a 2-0 pitchup mark with a .74 earned run average. Senior David Sharp is 2-0 win with a 2.62 ERA. Stanley has compiled a 2-1 mark and a 1.23 ERA. Ground also has a 2-1 record and a 3.82 ERA. Dave Lewis, the other starter, is 2-2 with a 2.97 ERA.

Netters Set OU Match

West Texas State's tennis team opens its toughest week of play thus far this season by playing at Norman, Okla., Wednesday against the University of Oklahoma.

The Buffaloes have a 14-4 record for the year, but one of those losses was a 5-4 decision dropped to the University of Oklahoma in the Corpus Christi Tournament.

After the Oklahoma match, the Buffaloes began play Thursday in the Oklahoma City University Tournament. Teams entered in that event are OCU, Oklahoma, Oral Roberts, Arkansas, North Texas State, Kansas and Wichita State.

OCU has one of the nation's better tennis teams. ORU and West Texas have split in a pair of matches. West Texas defeated ORU in the WTSU tourney and Oral Roberts came back to defeat West Texas, 5-4, in the finals of its own tournament.

West Texas players and their season records are Paul Tobin, 12-5; Mike Bolton, 14-4; John Phillips, 12-6; Dale Corbin, 13-3; Steve Bailey, 12-4; and Joe Carrick, 9-2.

Bolton and Corbin have the top doubles record, playing in the number two position, 15-3. Phillips and Tobin have played number one most of the season and carry a 13-5 record. Bailey and Carrick are 7-2 for the year.

West Texas plays Arkansas in the opening round of the ORU tourney. Others are Wichita-Oklahoma, ORU-Kansas and OCU-North Texas.

Baylor Club Plans Bicycle Cavalcade

The Panhandle Baylor Club will ride a bicycle from Amarillo to Heart Of Texas Coliseum in Waco in five days, according to Ed Phelps of Amarillo.

The Bicycle Cavalcade will leave Amarillo at 8 a.m. Monday and is scheduled to arrive in the coliseum at 1 p.m. Saturday.

Phelps said that some 50-60 ex-students are paying $20 for the privilege of riding (or not riding) in the Cavalcade. The riders are scheduled to arrive in the A & W Root Beer Drive Inn at 10:30 a.m. Monday.

Dr. Dudley Moore will be chairman of the riders from Canyon to Tulsa. The Cavalcade is to promote the Second Annual Gold-Carpet and the Bear Downs bicycle race which will be held at Baylor on Saturday.

The Cavalcade and Bear Downs is to help raise money for student scholarships.

What's This? Mens Lib!

BY BENNY TURNER

What's this? Men's lib! Not too long ago, a friend of mine, who will go unnamed and who also was a longhair or hippie or whatever you choose to call it, decided to get his long flowing locks cut.

Understand, this was a major decision, one that he had mulled over for almost six months. Several months ago he went as far as to have three or four inches cut off, but considering the length of his hair that did not mean just a whole lot.

The big question was where. He had a 2:30 job interview, the clock said it was one, which did not leave him very much time. By 1:30 he had called every styling shop in the panhandle and not one could get to him that afternoon. Rather than give him a chance to change his mind, I suggested that he call a beauty salon. I figured the only people with the experience in cutting a head of hair like his would be a beauty salon.

Needless to say the young gentleman was not overly enthusiastic, but by now frantic he accepted the idea with the provision that I make the appointment and go with him.

I casually strolled into the salon, planning on a afternoon of fun watching them whack away. But my confidence along with my friend's melted into thin air.

It was kind of a sickening feeling like I was walking into the sacred gossip room, where men were just about as welcome as the plague.

The women's eyes got as big around as silver dollars, evidently horrified that someone other than her hairdresser knew for sure.

My friend and I were also horrified, but with wobbly knees and a dry mouth he sat down in the beautician's chair not all sure this was what he wanted to do.

It turned out our apprehension was not justified and it was probably our eyes that got so wide rather than the woman's.

We were told by the owner of the salon, Betty Patterson, that it has been only since mid-January that licensed beauticians were allowed to cut men's hair. Before that time women could get their hair cut in barber shops, but according to the law it seems as though men were just not welcome in a women's beauty salon.

"Men's hair seems to be nicer than women's," said Mrs. Patterson. "It usually has not been subjected to all the various types of treatment women's hair has and men can get by with a more casual look."

"But it is not easier or harder to work on men's hair," she quickly added.

Oppe, Turpin Win Contest

Thomas Oppe won first, and Steve Turpin, second, in the Class AAA division of a high school mathematics contest sponsored by the West Texas State University mathematics department Tuesday, according to Dr. Hollis Cook, chairman. Both winners are students at Canyon High School.

Third place in that division went to Don Cosby of Tulsa.

In Class B, second place went to Patrick Acker of Nazareth.

In Class A, Pat Hillman won first and Susan Allen, second. Both are from Kress.

Overall winner was Dan Stebbins of Tascosa High School, Amarillo. He scored 101 out of a possible 120.

A big question remained in my mind after the ordeal. Will the male chavaniests swallow their pride and become regular customers of beauty salons? Will we take advantage of our newly found freedom?

"Through the years attitudes have changed a great deal, but I don't think that we have to worry about being overrun with men customers. Although I think the younger men are going more and more to the methods used in women's salons today," Mrs. Patterson said.

A beauticians training is quite different than for barbers, according to Mrs. Patterson. "We don't use electric clippers. Maybe we are more practiced at being precise, because we try to consider the stature of a person."

"But the barbers have changed quite a bit and I certainly don't think they will sit still if they think the beauticians are going to take away some of their business. I do think the idea is a little more cosmopolitan, than we are accustomed to in Canyon," Mrs. Patterson concluded.

So men what are we going to do, swallow our pride and be "cosmopolitan" or are we, just going to continue being plain old male chauvanists?

By the way my friend was pleased with his haircut, but still not certain that he wanted to return to a beauty salon.

The Canyon delegation is expected to return late Monday evening.
Financial Adviser Davis earlier had urged the commission to undertake the trip, so that the city can exercise its call option and refund $455,000 in water works and sewer bonds issued in 1957, which will result in a saving to the city of some $73,000 in future annual interest charges, over a 10-year period.
If the commission is successful and receives a better rating for Canyon Monday, Louder explained, "we can refund this current issue at a more advantageous interest rate."
Making the trip will be Louder, Bryan, Jim Christopher, Dr. Willis Harrison, Felix Pierce and H. R. Fulton, Jr.

Rites Held For Warren

L. A. Warren of Abilene who died last week at 73 in Abilene used to run a grocery store in the east part of Canyon.
His brother, W.A., operated a dry goods store.
L.A. had already tried his hand at wildcatting and yearned to be looking again for black gold.
He pointed out to his brother that retailing was not promising.
"Well, anybody who'd bet an eight inch hole against the surface of the globe can't be very smart," his brother admonished.
L.A. became a wildcatter anyway. Going broke became a way of life with him but he won more than he lost and became one of West Texas' most successful operators.
His story was in many ways that of the West Texas oil industry for he had the traits necessary for this unusual business, courage and tenacity, honesty, imagination and the ability to change with the changing techniques of oil exploration and development.
Mr. Warren did not fit the Eastern Establishment's concept of the boastful, arrogant Texas oil tycoon. He was a quiet, cultured educated man, a most happy fellow who was devoted to family and church, servant to good community projects. He typified his industry and the great benefits it has brought to this region.

Improvement Is Key For Gridders--Mayfield

After the first of four weeks of football spring drills West Texas State's coaching staff is elated with the work of the 72-man squad, but head Coach Gene Mayfield put his finger on the key.

"We made progress in the first days of practice, but the important thing is how much we improve during the next three weeks," said Mayfield. "We have 38 sophomores and some of those fellows must come through and play well without much experience behind them."

The Buffaloes entered spring training with only 18 lettermen back from last year's 2-9 season. Of the sophomores, 27 are up from the freshman team and the remainder are transfers and try-outs.

"The overall attitude of the squad, rather than outstanding progress, was most pleasing," said the head coach. "I hate to even mention injuries, but we got through the first week with only one."

Red shirt sophomore Clyde Adcock, who has had a knee problem all this year, reinjured the knee and it is not known how long he will be out. Returning regular linebacker Willis Haws was held out of hitting Saturday and Monday due to a slight knee strain. Walter Hibbler, who missed the first week of drills with a kidney injury, returned to practice Monday.

The Buffaloes will be given a day off Tuesday before returning to practice Wednesday. The first full scrimmage session will be at 2 p.m. Saturday in Kimbrough Stadium. Another scrimmage is slated for the following Saturday afternoon before the final spring game Friday, May 5.

Each of Coach Mayfield's assistants were pleased with their charges after the first week. Some of the comments follow:

Defensive line coach Jerry Behrens: "We have a long way to go, but did make progress. The two players inside at present are lettermen Robert Jensen and Bill Triciani. Behind them are sophomore Ben Field and letterman Larry Wiens. Larry made some improvement during the last three workouts of the week. At ends, Tony Borman and Ben Bentley had good practices, as did Kenny Donathan."

Offensive backfield coach Jim Dawson: "We have a battle for the quarterback post. Sophomore Mike Wartes and Ron Leach are the leaders now, but ex-Marine Robert Sweat hasn't been in contact work yet due to a knee operation. He has certainly shown signs of being the kind we need to run the offense. Sophomore Robert Edwards is showing improvement at quarterback and Amarillo's Bobby Nowak, even though he transferred in at the semester and must layout for a year and a half, is working hard."

"We moved Billy Pritchett to fullback because we feel the fullback is the key backfield man in our type of Wishbone-T offense.

Billy is big, strong and much quicker than he was last year. His best suit is running down field with the ball. Letterman David Land is progressing at fullback and David Diedrich moved from tight end back to fullback and is accepting the challenge."

Cole Fraley and Jimmy Lisle are working at the halfback positions. Jimmy has a great deal to learn, but has talent. Inexperience is his only holdup. The most pleasant surprise is the play of Rusty Tucker. We moved him to halfback from fullback to take advantage of his good quickness and he has responded with outstanding effort. Sophomore Johnny Jackson is working at both halfback positions and at fullback. Learning two positions has slowed him somewhat, but he is a good blocker and runs down the field like a wishbone back needs to do. Roosevelt Jackson has great leadership and is also working at both halfback positions."

Dawson also said split receivers Kenneth Sellers and David Cleveland are doing well. He said Sellers, the sophomore speedster from Corwell, has outstanding natural talent and Cleveland, a tryout from Odessa, makes an effort to catch every ball thrown in his direction. Cleveland is also a secondary player.

Defensive secondary coach Leldon Hensley. "The attitudes and work habits are more like what we expect. We didn't have to drive the players to do the work. Everyone is trying to make the team and don't mind working to make it. Daryl Carr (a returning regular), Steve Sydow and Merle Kilpatrick have shown that they have played before. The sophomores—Scott Hindman, Juan Garza and Acadio Rivera—are continuing the progress they made on last year's freshman team. Tryouts Stan Wilson and Scott Doores, as well as Johnny McDowell, are all making improvement. If Doores continues to improve he will soon start to contest for a position. Reed Tolles made progress every day and Cecil Hood came along. Hood was slowed with a sore knee."

Linebacker coach Dean Rudd. "It was a good learning week. It is hard to single out players, but they all made progress. Willis Haws lettered at linebacker last year and he is in front of where he was a year ago. Joe Brock's experience is helping him there in the middle and squadman Bobby Hobbs is playing well. Working on the same side with Willis are sophomores Gary Weaver, Kurt Kinsinger and Dennis Duniven. Brock, sophomores Bruce Davis, Alton Cranford and tryout Eddie Hickman from Littlefield are at the middle backer position. Hobbs, David Herber and Steve Rogers are working at the other outside spot, along with David Harper, who transferred at the semester from Arkansas State and will have to lay out a year and a half. This group doesn't have a great deal of speed, but I think the players will have good discipline."

Offensive line coach W. P. "Chip" Van Pelt. "I was pleased with the teaching we were able to do this week. At tight end, sophomore Merced Solis is probably in front right now, but squadman Attila Vegh is making a strong tryout. Tommy Brownfield came out from the basketball team last week. It has been a while since he played, but he made improvement. Gary Fennell, letterman James Hankins and transfer Carroll Marriot all did well at tackle. Sophomore Ed Alford, Gerald Chisholm and Jim Hart made progress. Allen Mullins and Ronnie Bassett came along at the guard positions and Billy Taylor put some good work in at his position. Mike Casas, another squadman, also worked hard at guard. Transfer Mike Delaney did well, but is a little behind because he is new to the system, as is Fennell. Both transferred from junior colleges at the semester. Don White and Henry Hamilton, a pair of sophomores, have some quickness about them at center. We moved transfer tryout Mike Gerken from defense to center and he could help us at that position."

CHS Wins Five At Symposium

Schools To Hold Parents' Meetings

Meetings for next fall's first-graders and their parents have been planned at Rex Reeves and Gene Howe School.

The parents of six-year-olds and the children will meet at Rex Reeves at 1:45 April 20. The Gene Howe group will meet at 1:45 May 4.

The schools have planned get-acquainted sessions for both parents and children.

Parents who do not receive letters should get in touch with the school closer to them, officials say. Letters from Rex Reeves have been mailed. Those from Gene Howe will go out toward the end of April.

Gene Howe plans to invite next year's beginners to attend a program put on by this year's first grade early in May.

Some 160 women toured the Panhandle-Plains Museum and the West Texas State Activities Center Thursday.

The women are members of the West Texas Judges' Wives association.

The group began the tour at 10 a.m. at the museum, with tour of the center to follow.

Members of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce welcomed the women with red-carpet treatment.

Cornette Portrait Shown At Phoenix Club Banquet

Two veteran educators and a promising young student enjoyed rare moments of triumph Tuesday night when they were honored by members of the Phoenix Club during their 10th annual Banquet at West Texas State University.

Dr. Emmitt D. Smith, dean of the College of Education, became the first WTSU ex-student to receive the annual Faculty Excellence Award of $1,000.

Dr. James P. Cornette, president of WTSU, witnessed unveiling of an elegant portrait of himself, to be hung at the university among portraits of his predecessors.

And young Dave Davis, a senior biology student at the university, was named as "Man Of The Year" among members of the WT student body.

Dr. Smith beamed as he told the News, "It's the highest honor I've ever been paid by the people of this area, and I couldn't be happier."

He said the award was important to him "because it was given by my co-workers and friends, and because I join a very select group (the Phoenix Club). Now more than ever I am especially aware of the motivation this group gives the faculty, to serve the community and the region where they live..."

Dr. Smith received a standing ovation by some 350 Phoenix Club members and guests where he received his award.

President Cornette, shortly before unveiling of the portrait, said "All of us here at WT are deeply grateful to all of you (Phoenix Club members) for helping us to have a better school. Nothing gives me more pleasure than getting to see one or more of you and see that you have had good lives—that's

Final Concert Set Sunday

Pianist Andree Juliette Brun will present the final program of the Canyon Community Concert series at 3 p.m. Sunday afternoon in the auditorium of Canyon High School.

On her program are Beethoven's Sonata in E flat major, Opus 81a, Brahms' Variations on a Theme by Paganini, Chopin's Addante spianato et Grande, Debussy's "Estampes," "O Prole Do Bebe" by Villa-Lobos, and Liszt's "Hungarian Rhapsody No. 6."

Leopold Stokowski said of the performer "Andree Juliette Brun is a pianist of great technique, imagination, variety of rhythm and originality. She is a fully accomplished artist."

Born in Paris, Miss Brun began her musical studies at the age of 4, upon the advice of Marguerite Long, French pianist.

Four years later, Miss Long presented her in a first public appearance, a concert at Salle Gaveau in Paris, where she played before an audience which included Maurice Ravel, Francis Poulenc, Alexandre Tcherepnine, and Henri Tomasi.

Her parents decided against a child prodigy career for their daughter and, instead, Miss

Brun spent several years of study under Marguerite Long and Jacques Fevrier and was then admitted to the Conservatoire National de Musique de Paris.

The World War II, she continued studies with Marcel Ciampi, Madame Bascourret de Guerlain and conductor Poulert. During this time, her family was involved in the underground movement, working with British agents and her father was ultimately arrested for aiding the Allies.

Miss Brun was graduated with honors from the Conservatoire, and made a recital debut after

Commissioners Plan N.Y. Trip

The Canyon City Commission will go to New York City for a conference with bonding officials Monday in an attempt to obtain a better rating for city bonds.

Mayor J. Manly Bryan announced the commission's decision to go late Tuesday. He said unless unforeseen circumstances arise between now and the weekend, all commissioners and City Manager George Louder will make the trip.

Cost to the city for travel and lodging expenses will be about $300 per man, Bob Davis the city's financial advisor predicted.

Louder said Wednesday that estimate probably would be close, but that he could not say positively. He said only commissioners and himself will make the trip. Wives will not accompany the officials, as the city has a financial policy of paying only necessary expenses.

The city manager added that commissioners will depart the Panhandle by air, with some planning to leave late Friday, others Saturday.

The Canyon delegation, before meeting with bonding officials of Moody's Investor Service early Monday will gather in New York Sunday afternoon to plan their presentation of request for higher bond rating. Canyon commissioners will seek to get the current city bond rating of B-aa raised to A.

"We want to convince them that our city operations are in such good status that they deserve a better bond rating," Mayor Bryan said there is a possibility that Canyon can achieve the highest rating possible, an A-1 rating. "We're going to try for it," he declared.

able, an A-1 rating. "We're going to try for it," he declared.

Louder continued: "This is an advantageous time to seek a change in our bond rating, and on our next bond issue this will be extremely important for the city, as ratings carry a great deal of weight in costs to the city (See COMMISSIONERS, Page 13)

Election Seminar Set

A political seminar on state and party rules for the general election, party primaries and conventions will be held on the West Texas State campus Saturday.

Mary Kate Wall of the Texas Legislative Council and formerly with the Attorney General's office will speak at the seminar, according to George Ritter of the government department.

The seminar will be held from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in room 126 of the Activities Center and is being sponsored by the WT government department.

Mrs. Wall will speak at 9:30 a.m. on new state laws concerning voter registration, primaries, the general election and party conventions. She is the accepted authority in Texas on election laws, according to Ritter.

The seminar is primarily for county clerks, tax assessor-collectors, party chairmen, election clerks and judges and others concerned with the elections.

Following a luncheon the group will divide into two panels for discussion on Democratic and Republican party rules. The Democratic rules will be discussed from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m., while the Republican rules will be discussed from 3 to 4 p.m.

David Matthis, of the government department, will be the chairman of the Democratic panel. Members of that panel will be Jack Gaubert, State Democratic Executive Director; Joe Batson, State Democratic Committeeman; Frank Baughman, Potter County Democratic Chairman; Marion Bruce, Randall County Democratic Chairman; and Mrs. Ruth Osborne, Democratic Committeewoman.

Walter Shelley, also of the government department, will be the chairman of the Republican panel. Members of that panel will be Bob Groseclose, Republican Fieldman for West Texas; Don Reavis, District Committeeman; W. Tom Price, III, Randall

Savings And Loan Branch Will Open

Panhandle Savings and Loan Association of Amarillo will open a branch office in Canyon not later than June 1, according to president, Jack M. Huddleston.

Huddleston said Friday, Panhandle Savings and Loan has contracted to purchase land at 1901 4th Ave., which was the final requirement for approval of the branch office.

The association will open its office with a staff of three persons and intend to hire two Canyon people initially, he noted.

The Canyon facility will be a full-service branch office offering all of the services offered at any of the association offices, Huddleston stated.

Panhandle Savings and Loan has been represented in Canyon since 1961 but the Canyon branch will be the first out-of-city branch for the association, Huddleston pointed out.

Huddleston said, "Canyon has continued to be one of our leading residential loan areas," and he said Panhandle has a goodly number of savings customers in and around Canyon.

Substation Approved

Randall County Commissioners Monday approved a request by County Clerk Leroy Hutton to open a substation for absentee balloting for the upcoming primary election May 6 in south Amarillo.

Hutton pointed out that the substation will be needed to handle voters of Randall County including students enrolled at West Texas State University.

Hutton was authorized to hire an additional deputy clerk should one be needed to assist students in voting on campus if WT administrators concur with his plan.

Absentee balloting, Hutton said, will begin next Monday.

He said the new substation to be set up at 3806 S. Bowie in Amarillo and the additional deputy clerk will help handle absentee balloting for some 7,000 eligible student voters. Of that total, he said he counted some 3,171 commuting students; 1,738

C-C Women Plan Rally

The Women's Division of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce will sponsor Randall County '72 in the Canyon Community Center April 27.

The women have invited political candidates in the county commissioners, the county tax-assessors-collector, the legislative and congressional race to participate.

Each candidate will have two minutes to present a speech. A question and answer period will follow the speeches of the candidates for each office.

The candidates that have accepted invitations are Paul Lindsay, Bob Henry and Raymond Batenhorst for the County Commissioners Precinct 3 race; Bob Slough, Rep. Bryan Poff and Rhett Plank in the Legislature race; and Mrs. Audrey Bruse according to Margo Fields, chairman of the event.

"We are sponsoring Randall County '72, so the people of the county will have a chance to meet these candidates, and find out what they believe and what they are for," said Mrs. Fields.

"The program and time limits are fairly short, so everyone will have a chance to talk to these people on an individual basis," she said.

Sam Bryan has been at work as superintendent of Happy Schools for the past 17 years. Bryan is also a farmer and raises wheat and milo and "a few cows" as a hobby. He and his family came to West Texas from Oklahoma in the 1920s, and he took over his present duties in 1955.

School Head Is Happy . . . There

By LEWARD HOOD

Sam Bryan is proud of his record. He hasn't been late to work one time during his 17-year tenure as superintendent of the Happy School System.

"I've never been tardy, and I've never lost any time due to sickness," he declared Friday, sitting behind his desk at Happy High School, with a colorful oil painting given him by his wife in the background.

A native of Durrant, Okla., the superintendent moved to

"New Sound" Is State Day Theme

"It's a Whole New Sound" will be the theme when members of Delta Zeta Sorority meet for the Province XVII State Day convention Saturday and Sunday in Lubbock.

Hosting the meet will be members of the Canyon, Amarillo and Lubbock alumnae groups and Zeta Zeta collegiate chapter at West Texas State University. Approximately 600 persons are expected to attend.

Convention headquarters will be the Red Raider Inn Convention Center in Lubbock, with registration set to begin at 10 a.m. April 15.

Highlight of the meet will be a formal banquet at 7 p.m. April 15. Dr. Panze Kimmel, associate professor of education at Texas Tech University, will be guest speaker.

An awards breakfast is planned for 8:30 a.m. April 16 at the convention center. Featured speaker will be Mrs. E.B. Hinkley of Port Isabel, treasurer of the Delta Zeta Foundation and past national president.

Special guest will be Mrs. Betty Agler of Columbus, Ohio, national executive secretary of Delta Zeta.

Principals Will Attend Meeting

John D. Sommer, principal of Canyon High School, and Dave Corley, principal of the junior high school, will travel to San Marcos April 19 and 20 for a principal's workshop.

The workshop is sponsored by Southwest Texas State University and activities will cover two full days, Sommer said.

Major topic of discussion will be secondary school administration.

Ralls on the South Plains in 1929, when he was 10 years old. In 1935 he took his bachelor of science degree from Abilene Christian College (where he met wife Mary Etta), and then took his master of arts degree in 1940 from Texas Tech.

He described his early years on his father's farm as "kind of rough and tumble affair." He said he broke some horses, tended stock and once in a while tried to ride some ornery mules. Rodeo, back then, he said, was work with young people...out of all the school boards I've served on I've never had a poor school board member, and to me that's important...as long as the people in the community select good school board members, their schools will be in good hands."

The superintendent recalls the early days when he was paid a salary of $95 per month. "That was my first job," he said, as a teacher and coach. And we were paid for nine months, rather than 12.

"Now," he points out, "the beginning salary for teachers in Texas is $6,000 a year."

His hobby is farming, and he raises cotton, milo and wheat

and "a few cows."

Supt. Bryan recalled, "When I came here we had our grade school in one building—the building which now houses the agricultural department."

"There have been two major building programs in the school system since I've been here. The high school was remodeled and expanded in 1962, and Happy Elementary School was completed in 1956."

He said the community has no immediate plans for additional new school construction. Not organized, as it is today, and cowboys just rode for the fun of it.

At 62, he's glad he came to Happy in 1955.

"It's been rewarding," he remarked, "and very pleasant to

Happy's vocational agricultural program for youth is in the superintendent's view one of the best in the Panhandle. "We are right proud of our graduated students, and have received many favorable comments on them."

As far as the future is concerned, he said he probably will continue his farming after retirement.

But he said quickly he is not yet ready to retire.

Letter To The Editor

April 6, 1972

Dear Troy:

I have just read your comments in the Canyon Rim of 16 March 1972. Thank the Lord you like my politics.

I am sorry I conveyed the impression of arrogance and aloofness because it's a certainty that a five-foot, five-inch preacher's kid schoolteacher Republican does not have a helluva lot to be arrogant about.

What concerns me more than the fact that my loveable personality does not come through is your noting that you have written me a couple of times on community problems and apparently have not received an answer. If that is the case, it is certainly contrary to my personal policy. We have always felt in this office that we have a solemn obligation to respond to communications from constituents. We get about 3000 letters a week here and, even though I feel I have a very competent staff, occasionally one slips through out fingers.

It would be a great favor to me if you would give me the dates of the letters you wrote me and the subject matter and let me see if I can find out what happened to them. I consider that any community problems that Canyon has which come within the purview of federal responsibility are my problems too.

I do appreciate your ability to divorce your personal feelings from your political.

I do appreciate your ability to divorce your personal feelings from your political judgements. It is a quality too few people possess.

I hope I can hear from you soon.

Best regards,

Very truly yours,
John Tower

Dear Sir:

I feel compelled to come to the defense of my superintendent, my school board, students, and my community as a follow-up of two articles printed in the Canyon Sunday News, April 8, 1972, written by Leward Hood concerning Happy. These articles concerned the question of school sponsorship of a rodeo club for high school youths and feature article on our small town. An unbiased account of both are of vital importance to us as a community — really almost a suburb of Canyon since, for many citizens of Happy, Canyon is our supplementary shopping area, supplies our hospital needs, and receives taxes from the Randall County citizens.

Let me hasten to say that if our school superintendent and school board agreed to study the rodeo question from all its aspects, they will do so in a thorough and fair way and will give the question its honest decision. I have worked with our school board and community for many years, and although I have not always had my way, I have always had the feeling that I was justly considered and professionally treated, and then I abided by the decision of the eight qualified men. After all, that is what we elect a school board for — to represent us in matters that concern everyone. They must consider carefully the question or we would not want them to represent us in our important matters. We need understanding and cooperation from all our citizens, and certainly we are too small for factions and divisions and misunderstanding. I state again that we shall get a thorough study and a fair decision from them. Our students know this also.

As to the article on Happy "Watch Out or You'll Miss It", let me state that it did not fill me with pride as I read it, and I am proud of my town, mine by choice, because I learned in 1947 that when you need help and friends that no where can you find more genuine concern than that which you find in Happy. The entire town rallies when they can be of help in all circumstances. The play on our number of citizens and telephone subscriptions, our "couple of dilapidated buildings", the missing of one of our cafes on the highway, and leaving out our community spirit did not picture my town as I see it.

I am a very unassuming person and have tried to attend to my own business here for thirty-three years, but I consider these pictures of us as a great part of my business. I would like to say much more in behalf of my school, my community, and my people, but it would be too long to print, so thank you.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Vivian Wesley, Principal

Tidbits

here and there

BY CAROL CRAIN

ON A RECENT VISIT to Arlington, Marion and Elsie Higdon noticed a rash of bumper stickers advertising "Six Flags Over Texas" and other promoting the new Arlington attraction "Seven Seas".

The townspeople were advertising their own attractions in order to bring in more tourist who would contribute to the income of the area and eventually to the welfare of those bumper sticker toters.

The Higdon's were sporting their own "TEXAS" bumper sticker, of course.

It would certainly be an asset to Canyon if our townspeople would display more and more of the musical drama's bumper stickers as well as "Can-do City" ones. They are available at the Canyon Chamber of Commerce office on 4th Avenue.

Perhaps the clubs in town would send one person in to pick up enough for most of their members. Then, wherever we happen to go we would silently be promoting "Our Town" as we made our way down the highway.

A piece of stuffed satin or velvet is placed between the two jar rings which will be glued together. A curtain ring is added to the top (standing up for decoration) and to the bottom (laying down to support).

To finish up the "clock" pin cushion, just add decorative braid around the rings.

Canyon Soldier Aids War — Torn 'Nam

(Ed. Note: This article is the second and final of a two-part series. The initial feature story appeared in Sunday's edition of the News.)

BY LEWARD HOOD

"The first time I was over there, I helped to destroy...now I'm going back to help build."

Those carefully chosen words expressed the strong emotion U.S. Army Maj. John Osborne feels toward his personal and professional missions in South Vietnam.

As commander of an artillery base there back in 1968, he said he had no idea then that his future would involve becoming a teacher — as well as a fighting man.

Maj. Osborne left Canyon Monday to return to his Can Gio District headquarters, to a village south of Saigon. There he will complete the remainder of an 18-month tour of duty, begun last November.

In his post as District advisor for some 74,000 South Vietnamese — including inhabitants of 17 political villages composed of some 61 hamlets — the 31-year-old major says his primary goal is to teach a war-battered people how to become self-reliant in a developing climate of private enterprise and individual freedom.

One of Maj. Osborne's prime projects is construction of a fresh water project and system for his district. The water is to replace an old French reservoir system which was partially destroyed during the Communist Tet offensive of 1968.

"We are using a lot of physical labor to renovate the system," he said. This project will eventually cost about $200,000 and upon completion local people will have their own water.

He explained that at present the South Vietnamese in his advisory area purchase their potable water from Saigon merchants. But this, he added, "is highway robbery." He said 100 gallons costs about 1,000 pias-ters, or $2.50 to $5.

Few Vietnamese can afford such prices, he said, and the new water system will eliminate the problem.

Maj. Osborne's role as teacher also involves the Vietnamese one-crop economy. Rice of course is the mainstay, but the major plans to teach his people how raise mushrooms, for even-tual sale elsewhere. "The mushrooms are going in now, and will be ready for harvest soon. We'll take the mushrooms and sell them to Saigon Chinese restaurants."

"They tried this before," he said, speaking of the lighter side, "but the people ate up the mushrooms before they could sell them!" He said that will not happen again if he can help it.

Under his guidance, villagers have completed construction of eight classrooms, within a recent four-month period. These will each house some 100 children, who will go to school in three shifts. The pupil, he said, will average about 3½ hours of classroom study daily, six days a week.

Maj. Osborne spoke of a new "miracle rice which grows very fast and produces much higher yield. Known as 'IR rice', this was developed originally by American agriculturists in the Philippines. It is his job to supervise the planting of the new 'IR'."

The South Vietnamese of his district must, like free people everywhere, maintain intense, constant vigilance against aggression, he continued.

And so his military advisory activity is heavy. He advises a total of nine RF (regional force) companies, and 45 PF (popular force) platoons.

Both military forces are similar to American national guard units; and both are under supervision of the regular Army of South Vietnam.

Maj. Osborne advises a total of 2,500 men.

How does he do all that he has to do?

"I don't sleep much," he said with a laugh.

His personal quarters in Truong Binh are located in a compound surrounded by barbed wire and guarded day and night by sentries, Maj. Osborne noted. South Vietnamese bodyguards accompany him when he travels in dubious territory.

His quarters are situated in the path of an old Viet Cong infiltration route from the south toward Saigon. Also nearby is a swampy area, known a few years ago as "VC haven."

He said there is a continuing threat of activity by the VC underground, called the VCI. He also said he deals with this group more with persuasion than with gunfire as pacification proves effective.

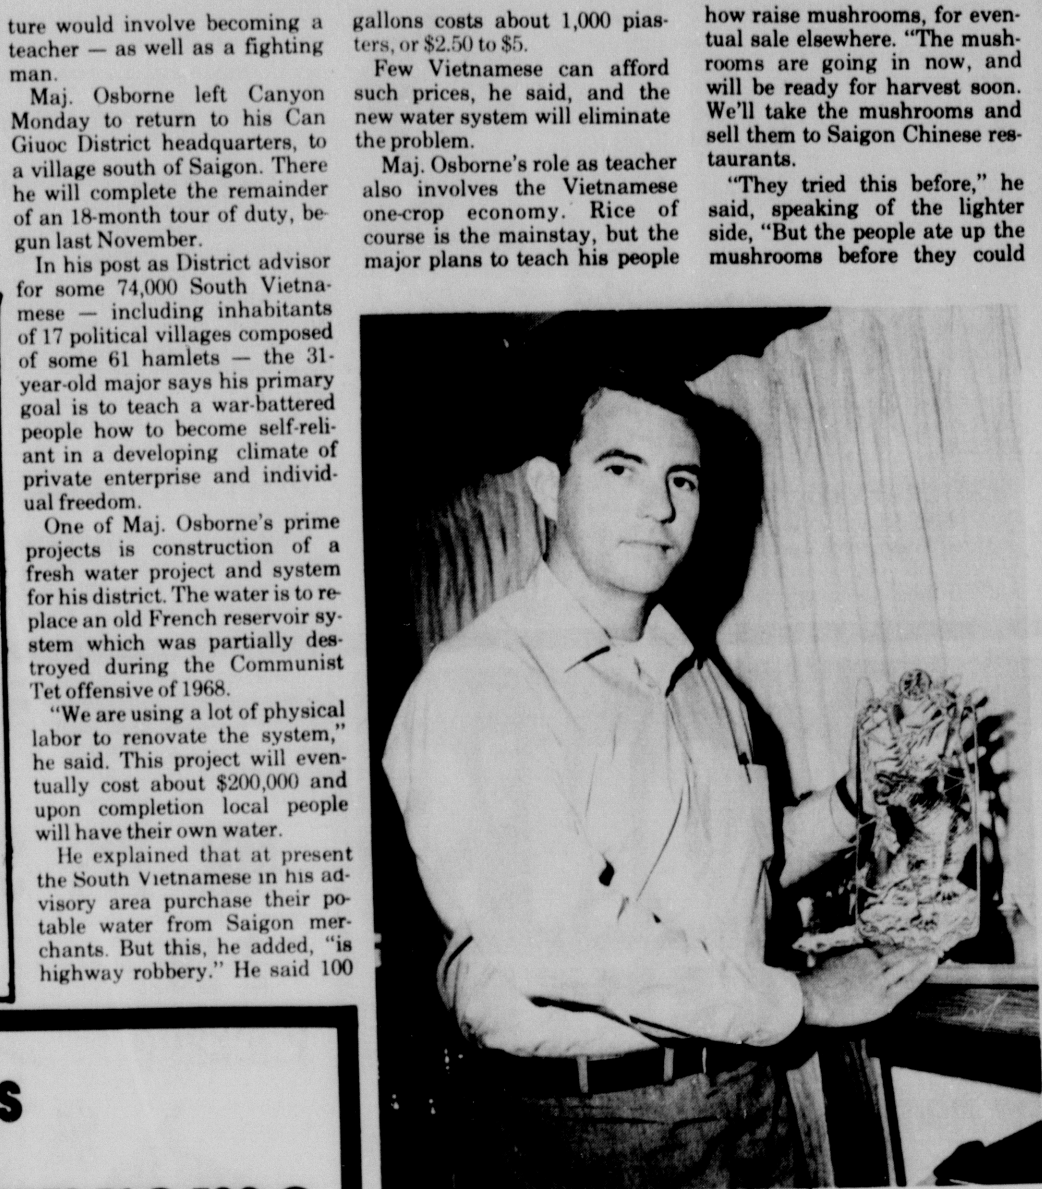

Also under his supervision is the MEDCAP (Medical Civic Action Program) activity in his district. He explained: "We have a MEDCAP team of from 8 to 10 doctors, nurses and aides who serve the medical needs of the people."

"We treat about 600-800 persons at one time, and nobody is ever turned away," the major said. Through use of a helicopter, the MEDCAP teams fly to outlying villages and hamlets where everyone gathers to gether for inoculation and treatment."

Shots are administered to villagers for protection against plague of any kind, yellow fever and other diseases. Malaria suppressant tablets are dispensed widely on a "people-to-people" basis, from Americans to South Vietnamese, he added.

Maj. Osborne also mentioned the "Land to the tiller" program, designed by South Vietnamese law and patterned after American homesteading. This government program allows the people there to own their own land and till it themselves to achieve personal dignity.

Another of his duties is to assist with a self-help program, the "Sanitary Hamlet Program," wherein water is treated chemically, garbage collection is practiced regularly, and all pets and livestock are vaccinated to prevent serious health hazards.

Maj. John Osborne, a U.S. advisor working with the South Vietnamese in a province south of Saigon, returned home last week for a visit with his family in Canyon. Here he shows a souvenir, an ornamental Asian plaque, which he planned to place in his trophy case. The major is serving his second voluntary term in South Vietnam, and will return to duty there Monday, as the war warms up again.

The future thus holds much promise for the South Vietnamese despite ominous new threats of Communist terrorism, in Maj. Osborne's view.

This career Army man also is a literary man, having long been interested in history.

"I keep a diary and a journal," he said and indicated that he may one day share his impressions and experiences with the world, by writing from the viewpoint of an historian.

But in the meantime, it is his self-proclaimed duty to share his knowledge — and hence his achievement — with a people striving to be free.

Paleontologists To Meet At WT

The Texas Chapter of the Society of Vertebrate Paleontologists will hold its third annual meeting at West Texas State University this weekend.

"The Panhandle area is rich in classic vertebrate fossil localities," said Dr. Gerald Schultz of the WTSU geology department which is hosting the meeting.

"We will have the leading paleontologists in Texas attending the meeting and touring these fossil sites," he said.

The three-day meeting opens at 9 a.m. Friday with a tour of the Killgore Research Center on campus and a look at the fossil collections there and at the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum.

The paleontologists will visit Palo Duro Canyon which has "excellent exposures of Upper Permian and Upper Triassic beds," Schultz says.

On Saturday the group will visit Pliocene sites north of Clarendon in Donley County and northeast of Miami in Hemphill County. The Clarendon fossil site represents the Lower Pliocene age of 8 to 11 million years ago and the Hemphill stage is of the Middle Pliocene age of 4 to 8 million years ago.

The paleontologists will visit the Rock Creek locality near Silberton and Mt. Blanco near Crosbyton on Sunday. These localities represent Pleistocene age of 1.5 to 3 million year ago.

Schultz says the following society members plan to attend: Dr. John A. Wilson and Dr. Ernest L. Lundelius Jr., both of the University of Texas; Dr. Wann Langston Jr., Texas Memorial Museum, Austin; Bob H. Slaughter and Dr. C. Vance Haynes, both of Southern Methodist University; Dr. Walter W. Dalquest, Midwestern University; Dr. Charles McNulty, University of Texas at Arlington; and Dr. Jack T. Hughes, West Texas State.

In addition, about 25 students from West Texas State, Southern Methodist, Midwestern and the University of Texas plan to attend.

Canyon Boy Wins District Honor

A Canyon member of the Future Farmers of America has been named as District Chapter Farmer for his recent "outstanding" work in agriculture.

He is Raymond Hunter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Hunter, Route 2, Canyon. The youth received the honor during a meeting Monday night of the Amarillo District of FFA, held at Boys Ranch.

Young Hunter is a second-year student in Canyon High School's FFA program. The award, said his instructor, Jim Walker, was given to him for his "outstanding leadership abilities," as well as his FFA projects and skills.

As recipient of the district honor, he will compete for the title of Area I Star Chapter Farmer at Area I meetings scheduled May 13 at Lubbock, Walker said.

Young Hunter's father operates Hunter's Dairy of Canyon. The youth has been a member of the dairy judging team of the local FFA group, and has "done real well in his work," Walker said.

Also at the Monday Meeting, Walker said, three Canyon FFA members were approved as Lone Star Farmer Award applicants. They included Neil James, James Berry and Scottie Keeling.

Happy Records Rise In Homes

Although there has been no "boom," the city of Happy has enjoyed a steady rise in the number of new homes during the past five years, reports Frank Tiley, Happy builder.

"We have built about 20 new homes within the past five years," he said, "and we've got about three more now in the planning stage. We built two last year."

They also pointed out that remodeling work on houses in Happy has increased during recent years.

Two Work On Rodeo

Oran Watson and Linda Roberts are among members of the Texas Tech Rodeo Association preparing for Tech's Intercollegiate Rodeo to be held April 20-22 in Lubbock Municipal Coliseum. Performances will be held at 8 each evening.

LORRAINE BONDS, LEFT, looks over the shoulder of Joan Castleman, Canyon News bookkeeper and receptionist, at the close of a selling day. Lorraine is one of 11 local contestants vying for $2100 in prizes in the Canyon news and Canyon Sunday News subscription drive. Contestants report nightly, and winner will be determined by the number of points accumulated during the four-week drive.

Stratford Program Set By Trio

A chamber music recital by the West Texas State University Piano Trio will be given April 21 in Stratford. The performance is free.

The recital, scheduled at 8 p.m. in the First Christian Church, is sponsored by the Stratford Federated Clubs, under auspices of the WTSU Faculty Performance Series.

The series, inaugurated last fall, provides at no cost to area arts organizations programs in art, music and drama and speech. Funding is through the WTSU Friends of Fine Arts.

Programmed for the recital will be "Nocturne," a composition by Trio Pianist George Eason, as well as "Trio in B Flat Major," by Mozart and "Trio in D minor" by Schumann.

The Trio includes violinist Dr. Donald Todd, associate professor of music, and cellist Brian Walton and Pianist George Eason, both assistant professors of music.

A LETTER to the PEOPLE of RANDALL COUNTY

Canyon, Texas
April 13, 1972

TO THE CITIZEN'S OF RANDALL COUNTY:

I am seeking election as Commissioner of Precinct No. 3, Randall County's Commissioners Court, subject to the primary on May 6th, 1972. I am not directly involved or interested in any contract with or claim against this county; nor do I represent any person or group of people. I have no axe to grind and only interested in serving all of the people of Randall County, and especially Precinct No. 3.

I am 59 years old and have lived in this county 50 years, and the youngest son of Dr. C.E. Donnell, M.D.; who practiced medicine here for 24 years. I have had experience in city government; having served as Mayor of Canyon from 1958 to 1960. At the time I took office, the city was broke, and had an indebtedness of over $1,101,000.00. It was placed on a sound basis through the combined efforts of the commission during my term. The city and county both come under the State Laws of Texas, and are similar in each of its operations. Also have had 35 years of business management experience.

I received a diploma from Canyon High School, and a B.S. Degree from West Texas State University, and 21 hours toward a Master's Degree. A veteran of World War II serving in the United States Marine Corp at San Diego and Camp Pendleton, California, Guam, and Tsingtao, China; received an honorable discharge with good conduct medal in August, 1946. Have served as President of Chamber of Commerce, and received various plaques for other boards, and as a working member of other organizations.

As your Commissioner, I will do my best to conserve the economy of the county and oversee the maintenance of all roads and bridges in my precinct; will help uphold the power and adult probations courts; take a special interest in all juvenile and upkeep of all necessary public buildings, and strive for greater efficiency in all departments. Also as a member of County's Tax Equalization Board will try to be fair with all property owners. I fully realize the responsibilities connected with this office, and will have time to fulfill my duties.

I want to see common sense used in our government, and want to be a servant of the people. My purpose in life has always been to help others. I have always believed it to be more democratic to disagree than agree on all deliberations, and will express what I believe is right and stand for what I think right and oppose what I believe is wrong. I would like to see Randall County always run by Canyon, and County people. In the past years have worked hard for Canyon, and now would like to work hard for my county. I have a clean record and a clear conscience in all of my efforts and will maintain this throughout my life. I will appreciate your vote and support.

Sincerely,
Charles E. Donnell

C-C Women Hear Louise Evans

Louise Evans of Amarillo former editor of the editorial page Amarillo Globe News Papers, spoke to the Women's Division of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce at a salad dinner-meeting Tuesday night.

Mrs. Evans told the group there is only one type government we can have in America — self-government.

"The reason we have fallen into such disarray is because we have not been responsible citizens. There are no escape clauses in the United States Constitution. We can not set up a dictator or a king," she said.

"We have 2,800,000 working in the federal bureaucracy. These 2.8 million people, over whom you have no control, run this nation and it is because we have not been responsible citizens, because we have not practiced self-government," Mrs. Evans admonished.

She told the group that about 15 years ago the power of the vote went to the women, when they became a majority. "As a generality in Texas only about 50 per cent of the enfranchised (registered) voters vote in Texas. How can you participate in your government if you are not willing to participate in the first grass roots level. If you are not willing to participate in the precinct conventions and willing to vote."

"My contention is that if this Republic goes under, only the women are to blame. Historians writing about it in 1,000 years from will know who to blame—the women," Mrs. Evans concluded.

The club discussed Randall County '72 which will be a town meeting where several political candidates will appear to present their views.

4-H Girls Bring Blue Ribbons Home

BY MARY NEAL HENRY

I GOT LOST THREE times on my way to the luncheon Wednesday noon at the Gold Room. Margo ask if I knew where it was and I thought I did, but next time I'll think twice. We had a lovely luncheon and the subscription drive is on. It is very simple! You need to subscribe to the now bi-weekly Canyon News. If you are already a subscriber, it will help if you'll renew your subscription. If your renewal is due, call me, and I'll pick it up. It doesn't count for me unless I take the money to Canyon. Thanks anyway, Myra Nell, for trying!

ALL OUR 4-H GIRLS who went to Lubbock over the weekend to the District Food Show came home with Blue Ribbons. Seniors were Debbie McCarley and Cathy Parker and juniors (division) were Jodi Foster, Lisa Payne, and Brenda Parker. Congratulations! We are extra proud of you because I hear there were plenty of red ribbons passed out.

EVANS HOLLAND WAS taken to Nebett Hospital on Thursday and returned home Sunday. We wish him a measure of health.

I VISITED WITH WILLA about the recent trip that she and Si and Foster and Phyla Harman took to Hawaii. Several from Canyon also went on this trip. They were together on the flight to Honolulu on Oahu Island, but then they rented their own car and took the tours of their choice. Si and Willa toured Pearl Harbor, the Arizona Monument, and Polynesia Cultural Center. They visited the volcanos, Kauai Island, and Hawaii Island. Willa said the scenery was gorgeous and they saw the pineapple and sugar cane fields and the ocean. They also enjoyed the coast line and watching the surfers. One of the prettiest sights was the orchids just growing in people's yards. Willa especially enjoyed the people, she said, "The Hawaiian people are so friendly." She brought home a muu-muu. And said it is quite an experience just flying in a 747.

WELL, THE PRINTER picked on me two weeks in a row, but you all know that all the Millers didn't have Easter dinner together. They aren't even related. Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Miller entertained Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Miller and the Laval Phippers, who is Mary (Miller) and her family. Mary Jane Miller's family gathering included Loraine and all her family. Mary Jane is in Houston visiting Frances Ann and Glen and their family.

MRS EUTHA HAMBLIN

reviewed the book she has recently published, "Rim to Rim", to the Sunnyhill and Pleasantview Home Demonstration Clubs. Mrs. Hamblen told why she wrote the book and about events leading up to the writing of the book. She painted the pictures that she wanted you to see in words. She told of all the research she'd done and the people who supplied the information and helped her. She made the book live and without actually telling the story gave you the desire to read the book. I expected to have a house full of people and I did. The program was an excellent one and you really missed something if you weren't there. Judy Shipman was co-hostess and she and I served Texas Pecan Cake and coffee to Amelia Irlbeck, Jeannette Head, Mrs. Stokes, Mary Rice, Janice Cranmer, Martha Goodman, Genelle Dillehay, Eutha Hamblen, Joan Hamblen, Traverne Vermeire, Geraldene Hamblen, Bessie McGehee, Kelly Hurst, Helen Byran, Dutch Hall, Jo Ellen Harvey, Gwynn Tucek, Bertie Culp, Sharon McCarley, Jo Hand, Maureen Allison, Barbara Danner, and Lou Dougherty.

BECAUSE OF THE Easter Holidays, the Happy School Board met on Thursday night of last week. New members Faye Hand and incumbent O. H. Rahlfs were sworn in. Burl Sims, Robert Lee, Chan Foster, Lonnie Todd, and George White and Superintendent Sam T. Bryan were also there. They reviewed and paid the bills. The approximate total tax on roll is $245,000 and tax collections are $95.24 complete. Two different lots will soon be sold for tax purposes. Plans were made to attend the school Board workshop to be held in Canyon on April 26. The board reorganized as follows: President, Burl Sims; Vice President, O. H. Rahlfs; Secretary, Robert Lee. The board then moved to another room to meet with about forty or more students and several adults who had come to encourage the school to sponsor a rodeo club. Wendy Sims and Bill Pearson were spokesmen for the group. They outlined the rules of the Tri State High School Rodeo Association. These are strict rules and good ones and worthy of the support in any good school system. Kip and Sandy Morgan were there to back the students and offered to be their sponsors. The school board heard the argument for and against Happy School's sponsoring a Tri State High School Rodeo Club. Chan Foster moved that the idea be tabled and the board voted UNANIMOUSLY to do so, until the full high school faculty's feelings were known on the matter.

THE LEAH-RACHEL SUNDAY SCHOOL class of the First Baptist Church entertained the Ruth Sunday School class because they lost an attendance contest. They served a delicious supper Thursday night in the Jaycee Hall and games were played. The two classes had entered an attendance contest six weeks ago and agreed that the losing class would entertain the other class. The Ruth Class was the winner with the largest number of members attending, so the Leah-Rachel class honored them with this special event. Special guests were Brother and

Mrs. Paul Heil and Mr. and Mrs. Hobart McManigal and the husbands of the women in both classes. Willie Butler welcomed everyone and Sam Williams gave thanks to God for the food and fellowship. Members and guests present were: Myra Nell and Everett Culp, Sam and Ann Williams, Leona and Merle McFarland, Gracie and Frank Tirey, John and Willie Butler, Evelyn and Rayford Shipman, Mary Sue and Harold Eakes, Forrest and Ruby Vise, Lonas and Moon Wright, Nora and Dee Taylor, Billie and Wayne Pearson, Wanda and Adrian Bates, Johnny and Lou Parker, Jane and Dozier Thornton, Phoebe and Paul Heil, Anna Mae and Hobart McManigal, Jo Hand, La Nelle Todd, Nan Earle Gauthreaux, Cammilla Greenfield, Lou Nell Mitchell, Mary Jane Miller, Maurine Allison and Lena Bell Cade.

GWYNN TUCEK had a Tupperware party on Friday morning. Ocie Parsons was there, of course, Jo Hand, Rita Tucek, Dutch Hall, Traverne Vermeire, Lou Dougherty, Sharon McCarley, LaNelle Hampton and me. Gwynn surely baked some delicious brownies to go with that coffee. Gwynn and Weldon are in that beautiful new home now and it is pretty!

THE ARTISTS CLUB MET on Friday night of last week. Iva McWilliams of Canyon gave the history of greeting cards and demonstrated painting on parchment paper with acrylics. Greeting cards began about 1860 and Mrs. McWilliams had some to show that were fairly old. Members present were: Aline Adams, Eddie Wilson, Joy Cox, Kathy Moudy, Zelma Selvidge, Mary Womack, Irene Hardaway, Ollie Nichols, Gay Fellers, and guests, Carolyn Kimbrell of Happy and Glenna Wilson of Canyon.

GAY FELLERS who lives north and two blocks East of the intersection of Main Street and Highway 87 in Happy has a stray hunting dog. He is white and black spotted, has no collar, but he was in good condition when he came there a few days ago, so she feels he must surely be someone's dog. I used to have hunting dogs here occasionally and the owners were always glad to see them again.

LLOYD AND Susan Rahlfs, and Dottie Foster, and Gene and Judy Shipman, attended the Regional 102 Jaycee Installation Banquet on Childress Saturday night. Dolph Briscoe Jr. was the main speaker. Bill Blackburn who is a former citizen of Happy was Childress's retiring president. Clubs participating in Installation ceremonies were Childress, Paducah, Claude, Wellington. These Installations are fun to make, because you meet people from everywhere. We seldom go anywhere anymore that we don't meet someone we know. Most of these leaders rise to be the leaders of their communities, in later years.

ORA MARY SIMS and I took fourteen girls to Hereford to a joint Rainbow meeting on Saturday afternoon. Those girls attending were Knoxie LeBeau, Pam Shipman, Diane Johnson, Mary Ann Sims, Barbara Dowd, Sandy Railsback, Kay Spear, Rhonda Fellers, Becky Stubblefield, Denise Cope, Debra Jackson, Sheri Henry, Karen and Kim Sims.

I JUST BARELY GOT back in time to meet Willie Butler to go to Amarillo to Bonita's friendship night. They had fried chicken and more good food to eat. The ladies all wore their gingham skirts long and looked really cute. Some of the guests did, too. The program was a comical meeting of the "Country Social Society Club." It was funny! And surprising! One lady missed her chair as she sat down and it wasn't in the script. They put on an outstanding show! I went by to see Victor and Josie Jones. Victor has just returned home from the hospital after having surgery. He is recuperating nicely.

SUNDAY, THE RAINBOW Girls attended the Presbyterian Church in a group. Mary Ann Sims led the responsive reading, Sandy Railsback, a morning prayer, and Debra Jackson read Genesis 9:8-17. All the girls sang "My Rainbow." Girls and sponsors attending were Debra Jackson, Sandy Railsback, Mary Ann Sims, Karen Sims, Rhonda Fellers, Debra and Shirley Penn, Sheri Henry, Barbara and Beverly Dowd, Dian Johnson, Linda Railsback, Becky Stubblefield, Vicky House, Pam Andrews, Knoxie LeBeau, Bonnie Briscoe, Kim Sims, Brenda and Cathy Parker, Shawn Walters, Denise Cope, Jodie Foster, Nancy White, Kay Spear, Connie Hand, Jan Whitlow, Kim McCaslin, Ora Mary Sims, Alden Mann, Nig Taylor, Faye Parker, will be Butler, Lynelle Andrews, Joyce Railsback, Evelyn Dowd and me. We had several guests. Among them were Debbie Parker and Angelique Henry. Most of us ate lunch together at Dolly's in Tulsa and enjoyed the company of the Fay Hands, Mrs. Gurley, Sara and Jim Tirey, (their Daddy had gone to Army) Louise White, Fernie Spear and our boys, Ken and J.T., Ruth Mann, Catherine Miller, and don't remember everyone.

I MET MY NEW neighbors Sunday afternoon. They are J. K. and Fran Osthus. They have moved here from Olton and have gone to work for the Carl and Carol Sims. Pat and J. C. Malone were there helping them get settled.

LATE SATURDAY, a small group team roped at the rodeo arena. The only thing outstanding about the event was this was the first time our Father-Son team won a jackpot. Tom and Ken came home in a good humor.

CARL AND HELEN BRYAN and Carolyn and Jimmy Dietz attended the Farmers Union Banquet in Amarillo Saturday night. Every County in this District was represented at this banquet. Decorations were red, white and blue, most appropriate for this year. Barefoot Sanders was the guest speaker but this does not mean that he is endorsed by this group. Farmers Union does not endorse any candidate. About two hundred were present for the banquet and social which followed.

ABOUT FIVE VOLLEYBALL teams entered the Tulia Tournament sponsored by the Beta Sigma Phi. Only the Lotta Burger (who is Kirksey) team went to the finals. Happy girls included in that team were Eddie Cope, Suzette Wesley, and Connie Johnson. They lost third place to Suzuki. After having heard about Suzuki that isn't bad at all.

C.E. AND HELEN Hayes with their two boys, Mike and Jack and daughter Suzan Miller, traveled to Port Author during Easter vacation to visit Helen's mother.

ON THURSDAY, APRIL 6, Mary Wallace Smith was given a bridal shower at Hope Wilson's. There were numerous hostesses and guests and gifts received. Hope Wilson, Mary Smith and Bettye Wallace greeted guests and Sue Wright registered them. Brenda Railsback and Glenda Wilson served from a table decorated with the chosen color of blue and white. Out of town guests included Vera Wallace of Tulia, Beverly Wallace of Amarillo and Kathleen Teel and Barbara Edwards of Tulia.

ALICIA RAY AIRHART and her fiance, David Scott Pool, were honored with a reception on Sunday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Myers and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Sykes at 6307 Adirondack in the Belmar Addition. Linda Frost and Carol Foster registered guests. Sue and Brenda Railsback poured punch from a table centered with yellow daisies and white carnations. There were numerous callers during the afternoon.

MIKE SIMS AND Jim Whitlow traveled to Clayton, New Mexico with Wendy Sims Saturday for a Tri State High School Rodeo. Wendy entered the calf roping.

DORA RATJEN AND June Hancock are in Dallas and Mansfield this week visiting and shopping.

HOPE, GLENDA, AND Michael Wilson and Louise and Nanch White and Ora Mary Sims and Mary Ann ate Pizza in Canyon Friday night the fishermen left.

THE JUNIOR HIGH GIRLS track team went to

Canyon Saturday. They ranked fourth with 47 points. Nancy White won third in the 80 yard hurdles and fifth in the 60 yard dash; Vickie House won third in the 44 yard dash; Connie Hand won first in the discus and second in the shot put; the 44 relay team won fourth; and the 88 yard relay team won fifth. We are proud of you girls.

JUDY SHIPMAN'S CUB SCOUT group played ball at the ball park last Thursday. The Thursday before that they had picked up trash around the ball park. Good Guys!

GLADYS HALEY AND I ran over to Silvertown Monday night to their Eastern Star Friendship night. They had a salad supper (some type ham loaf with cherry sauce) that was delicious and the program was a musical group, the fourth grade sang several numbers. A Mr. Lanham is their instructor and he drew their praise. The children really sang for him. Bob Ann Wheelchel, Dora Ratjen's granddaughter, was in the group. We saw Daisy Burson. You'll remember her. And lots of other friends. Canyon, Tulia, Lockney, Quitaque, Plainview, Floydada were all represented. Probably some more were that I don't remember. I was visiting instead of writing. Mary Ann and Charles Sarchet are Silvertown's Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron and they also publish the newspaper at Silvertown.

THE THING I'VE enjoyed most about the last few days has been the opportunity to visit with so many people.

See ya!
Mary Neal

Palisades Palaver

Mrs. Walker Is Woman Of Year

BY VICKI HOOKER

JOELLE WALKER WAS NAMED Woman of the Year last week for the Palisades Home Demonstration Club. JoDelle has served as president for the club this year and has done an excellent job. She has been in the club since it started and has served in various capacities, one of which was Council Delegate. Being such a diligent worker has made the club a very important facet of Jo's life and as she said, "The Club means so much to me. I look forward to each meeting."

JO-DELLE IS A member of the Unity in the High Plains Church in Amarillo and is a wife and a mother of three: one boy and twin girls. She is a housewife who loves and enjoys her home, and is always thinking of new ways to improve it.

JO WILL RECEIVE A silver bon-bon dish with her name and "Palisades Woman of the Year" engraved on it and a corsage at the Randall County Home

Demonstration Clubs' May Day Luncheon. A very modest person JoDelle could only comment, "I do so appreciate the club giving me this honor. I am very pleased but also a little embarrassed."

OFFICERS WERE ALSO elected at the meeting last Thursday at Lena Edwards. They are president, Nell Moore; vice president, Beverly Norman; secretary, Marcella Carille; council delegate, Valerie McClendon. These ladies will not assume the responsibilities of their offices until September, but congratulations to you gals, anyway. I know next year will be as exciting and profitable as this year has been.

I DID A LITTLE eavesdropping at the meeting and found out that Valerie McClendon and her three children, spent their Easter vacation with Valerie's family in Irving. She said that they really didn't do much but catchup on their visiting, and that grandparents spent most of their time playing with and admiring grandchildren.

ALSO MARY OLIVER, who lives on Palisades Road, and her children spent two or three days over Easter with Mary's mother, Mrs. Raymond Koontz, in Vernon. Mary teaches piano and wanted to announce that she will have a recital in her home April 28 at 7:00 p.m. Beginners who will play will be Susan Inman of Palisades, Todd Walker, of Holiday South, and Billy and Jody Cunningham of the Claude Highway. Debbie Moreland who lives on McCormick Road will also play. She is one of Mary's more advanced students.

IT MAY BE A little late for this, but we would like to express deepest sympathy to Estelle and Annie Atkinson in the death of their dear friend, Anna Taylor, who lived in Amarillo. Estelle and Annie were like family to her, and Estelle said that she had either seen or talked to Anna (they called her "Aunt Anna") every day for the past several years. We know that her passing away has created a great emptiness in their lives because they were so close to her.

LUM AND LENA EDWARDS will be leaving Saturday for a fishing trip in Arkansas. It will be their first outing in their new van. We hope they have a very relaxing and very safe trip and they make it back in time for the picnic on May 13. They said once they got started they may not be back for a while!

DOUG HOOKER, SON OF Charles and June Hooker, has been in Northwest Texas Hospital since last Friday. He is having some tests made to determine the cause of the severe headaches he has had since mid-November. So far, the doctors have not come to any definite conclusions, but Doug seems to be doing better and we hope he is released soon and that his headaches are nothing serious. June has been keeping Doug and Ginger's children, Amy who is two, and Chuck, 5 months. During their stay with "Nanny" and "Papa", Amy has learned to say, "I'm Papa's shadow in the Palisades!" And that's the truth! Everywhere he goes, she's trailing right behind.

JOAN TUCKER'S FATHER, MR. T.A. Stephens, was released from the hospital last Thursday after suffering a severe heart attack. Joan says he's doing much better, and we're glad to hear that.

LAST MONDAY NIGHT WAS board meeting night at Joyce McDonald's. Many topics were tossed around, but one definite decision was made. This weekend will be "Work Days", beginning at 8:00 Saturday morning. All who are available should meet in the park. The first project will be to fill in the holes in the pavement, not that they need it or anything! If enough men come and the weather holds out, they hope to work on the boxcar bridge some too. So everyone—don your work clothes and come on out. The board needs all your assistance.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY to Jack Inman. Tomorrow is his special day.

HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB, members will meet in the park next Thursday at 11:30 for a luncheon and workshop on making bread dough flowers, to be demonstrated by Beverly Norman. If the weather doesn't permit a park meeting, then we will meet at June Hooker's. Everyone come and bring a dish for the luncheon. Some bread and glue. Should be lots of fun!

THANKS TO EVERYONE who has helped me so far in the subscription campaign. I really do appreciate all your support. If you know of anyone who may be interested, give me a ring at 622-1439. I'll be happy to oblige!

HAVE A good week!

HD Agent Gives Buying Tips

By BECKY HALL

Randall County Home Demonstration Agent

In the fresh form, most fruits and vegetables are more plentiful and better buys at certain seasons of the year than at others. Usually they are highest in quality and lowest in price during the season of greatest abundance.

The only way to choose between fresh, canned, frozen, and dried forms of the same fruit or vegetable is to calculate the cost of a serving. In general, frozen foods have about the same food value as fresh foods, may have lost a substantial part of the vitamin value of fresh products.

If fruit and vegetable costs are running high, it will pay to watch market reports more closely and figure the cost per serving of various members of the same group. In most markets at most times of the year, potatoes, cabbage, carrots, turnips, onions, canned tomatoes, dried beans and peas, and some form of green represent good buys in the vegetable line. Similarly, apples, bananas, either oranges or grapefruit or their canned juice, and dried prunes tend to be the fruit staples.

When figuring the cost per serving of fruits and vegetables count as one serving: 1/2 cup of vegetable or fruit, or a portion as ordinarily served, such as 1 medium apple, banana, orange, or potato, half a medium grapefruit or cantalope, or the juice of one lemon. The "Food For Fitness" Guide, a daily food guide, USDA leaflet no. 429, recommends you choose four or more servings every day, from fruit and vegetable group, including one serving of a good source of vitamin C or 2 servings of a fair source. One serving, at least every other day, of a good source of vitamin A. Good sources of vitamin C foods include grapefruit or grapefruit juice, cantalope, orange or orange juice, raw strawberries, broccoli, brussel sprouts, green pepper, sweet red pepper. For some good sources of Vitamin A consider dark green and deep yellow vegetables and a few fruits, namely: apricots, broccoli, cantalope, carrots, chard, collards, cress, kale, mango, persimmons, pumpkin, spinach, sweet potatoes, turnip greens and winter squash.

Some suggestions in selecting fruits and vegetables—Whatever fruit or vegetable you are buying, look first for freshness. When selecting oranges, grapefruit, lemons and pineapples, choose those heavy for their size. Ripe pineapples have a fragrant, fruity aroma. Some pears, especially winter varieties, are marketed when slightly under-ripe and need to be ripened at home—at room temperature. Pears are ripe and ready to eat when they yield slightly to moderate pressure.

Select lettuce heads that are green, fresh, crisp, and fairly firm to feel. Head lettuce should be free from rusty appearance and excessive outer leaves. Choose cabbage heads that are firm and heavy. Outer leaves should be fresh, green, and free from wormholes. Best quality celery is fresh and crisp. It is clean and has leaves that appear fresh; stems do not have black or brown discoloration. Avoid pithy, woody, or very stringy celery.

Tomatoes should be plump, firm, and uniformly pink, red, or yellow in color. They should be free from growth cracks, scars, and bruises. The best flavored tomatoes are ripened on the vine.

For more information, see Home and Garden bulletin 141, "How To Buy Fresh Fruits" and 143, "How To Buy Fresh Vegetables". They are available without charge from the Extension Office.

Canyon Motel Operates Under New Ownership

Open house festivities will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday at the Trail Motel Hotel, 1901 23rd St., now open under new ownership and management.

Piano Program Is Planned

Pianist Carolyn Baker Sims, West Texas State University senior from Canadian, will be featured in a recital at 5 p.m. April 20 in the Fine Arts Building.

Programmed for the recital, which is free, are Beethoven's "Sonata No. 1 in C minor," Scaratti's "Sonata in F minor," Mendelssohn's "Song Without Words, No. 3 in G minor" and Robert Starer's "Sketches in Color."

Mrs. Sims is a member of Tau Beta Sigma, national band sorority, Alpha Chi, national honor society, and Mu Phi Epsilon, international music sorority of which she has served as historian and vice president.

Her recital is being presented in partial fulfillment of degree requirements for a Bachelor of Music Education Degree.

Wanda Walsh, owner and manager, urged all Canyon citizens to visit the motel during those hours to inspect the rooms and suites, and to enjoy coffee and donuts.

Mrs. Walsh purchased the motel April 1 from former owners, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Runyan.

Mrs. Runyan after purchase of the motel was announced said she wished to thank the citizens and businessmen of Canyon for "everything they did for us," while she and her husband operated the hotel.

Mrs. Walsh said, "I'm very enthused over Canyon, and I've had a very good welcome. I want people to see our rooms, many don't realize just how nice they are. I do plan to serve a continental breakfast, on a self-help basis, maybe within a month. This will take a little rearranging."

Mrs. Walsh, who has managed motels in Hereford, Abilene, Shamrock, and Lamar, Colo., in the past, said this is her first motel purchase. Her assistant is Mary Hughes. Her 12-year-old daughter, Beverly, will be attending Canyon schools.

Mrs. Walsh also has a son, Randy, 23, who is serving in the U.S. Marine Corps. at Camp Pendleton, Calif. She noted that he recently received head injuries in Pendleton rodeo, and is now hospitalized there. The son sustained head injuries when his foot hung up while saddle-bronc riding, she said.

She arrived in Canyon following an emergency trip to California to visit her hospitalized son.

Mrs. Walsh also has a 21-year-old daughter, Margie Warren, who is married and living in Kearney, Neb., and a 14-year-old son now attending school in Brownlee, Neb.

She is a native of Nebraska, and is a former school teacher, rural mail carrier and operator of a Nebraska general merchandise store and hotel.

"I've done a little bit of everything," she laughed.

She's a newcomer to the world of business and said, "I think all businesses in Canyon should work together and I expect to do my share (to help Canyon grow)."

Two Men Sentenced In District Court

Michael Ray Mason, 21, was sentenced to serve a term of not less than five years nor more than 10 in state penitentiary Monday in the 47th District Court of Judge Gene Jordan. The sentence was to run concurrently with previous sentences on other felony charges.

Judge Jordan also revoked his 10-year probation, set in 47th District Court in 1969 following conviction on a statutory rape charge.

Mason, until brought into Judge Jordan's court, had been serving time at Huntsville on two felony charges of possession of marijuana and possession of narcotic paraphernalia; Mason was convicted in Harris County on those two charges in November of 1971.

Mason was remanded to custody of the sheriff for return to the state penitentiary.

Raymond Dwayne Gustin, 17, of Amarillo, was assessed a four-year probation sentence in the same court Monday, after pleading guilty to a charge of burglary by breaking and entering.

Judge Jordan sentenced Gustin after he waived indictment and entered his guilty plea.

Gustin had been arrested and charged in connection with the April 6 burglary of Ridgecrest Elementary School in Amarillo.

Actors To Repeat Plays

Repeat performances of a Spanish comedy and a French farce will be presented by the Modern Languages Department at West Texas State University at 8 p.m. today in the Intimate Theatre of the Fine Arts Building.

Spanish students will offer "La Presidenta," the story of a woman of high ambition and another of none. Cast members are to be Marguerite Empie, Sue Thompson, Marie Mora, Alicia Dorado, Margaret Luera, Eva Ibanez, and Maria Mendoza.

"La farce du cuvier," which tells the story of a downtrodden husband's revolt against wife and mother-in-law, will be the French students' contribution. In the cast will be Sherry Carpenter, Karen Curry, and Matthew Stroud. Becky Horst is director.

Admission is 50 cents.

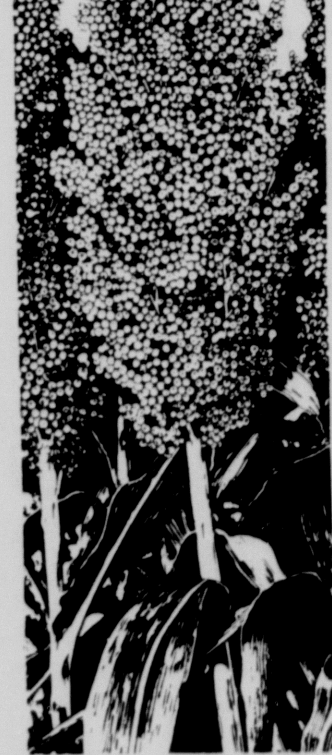

Annual Prom Held At WTSU

Some 200 youngsters and guests attended the annual Canyon Schools' Junior and Senior Prom, held last Saturday in the ballroom of the West Texas State University Activities Center.

John D. Sommer, principal of Canyon High School, said a musical group called the "Blackwater Draw" provided the music for the gala occasion.

Theme of the prom this year was centered around Hawaii and included a seashore atmosphere. Bill Moore, president of the junior class, gave a short welcoming address during the banquet, held in the east cafeteria.

Police Note Bike Thefts

Canyon Police said this week they believe a bicycle theft ring is operating in the city.

Police are seeking suspects who are believed to be selling locally stolen bikes in Amarillo.

Officers urged bicycle riders to lock their vehicles to fixed objects to prevent theft, and also to remember serial numbers, so that police will "have something to go on."

Within the past month, some seven bikes have been reported stolen.

Autos Are Hit In Burglaries

Two autos were burglarized last week in Canyon, and the thieves got away with more than $250 worth of stereo tapes, Police Chief Alan Stewart reported Monday.

S. T. Rendon of Denver City told officers someone entered his car and took some 30 tapes; his auto, he said, was parked at 2701 5th Ave.

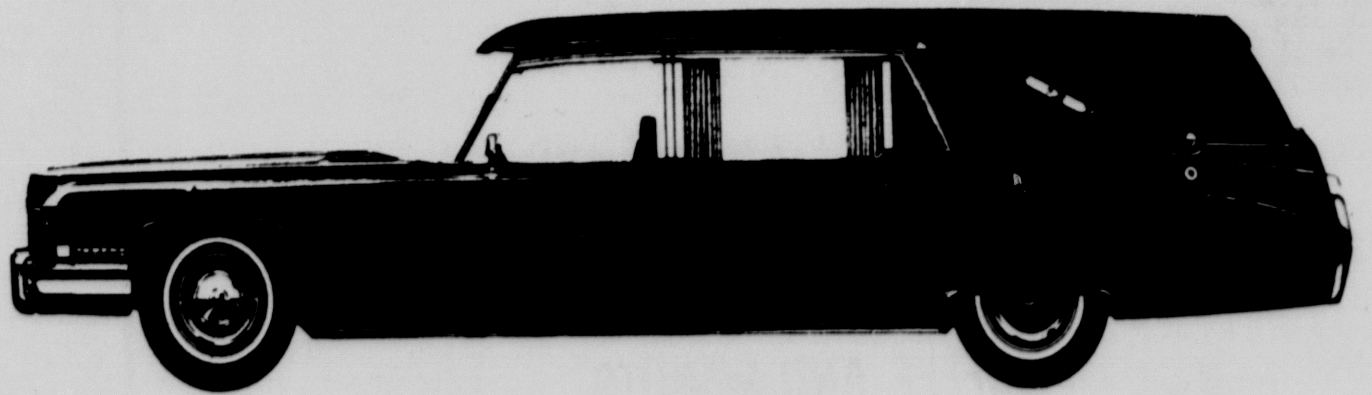

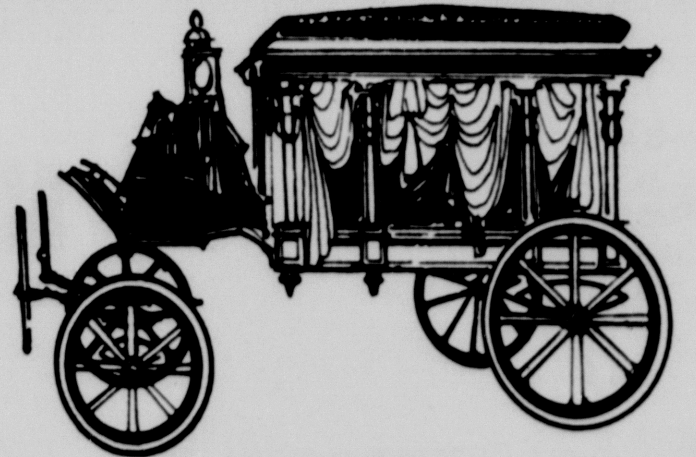

Larry Couzzourt, Apt. 15, Chateau Apartments, said thieves removed 20 tapes from his vehicle, parked near his residence.

No evidence of forced entry could be found in either burglary, police said, warning motorists to lock their parked vehicles to prevent additional incidents.

Girls' Groups Take Swimming Lessons

BY TOOTIE BYBEE

HOWDY, ONCE AGAIN FROM our little oasis to you wherever you just might happen to be at this time. Hope your week has been a happy and busy one. We've all been busy out this way on all sorts of little projects and activities. So, from us to you here is a little news:

OF COURSE YOU ALL know about the BIG CONTEST Canyon News is sponsoring. WELL, I would love

to sell you a subscription or renew your current one so just keep that in mind and give me a call at 622-1471 and I will buzz right over with my book.

THE BLUE BIRDS and Camp Fire Girls are all taking swimming lessons now every Tuesday at the YWCA. They should all be ready for the summer fun and camp with the new skills they are all learning. They will of course, earn badges for this and perhaps a few of them will earn heads.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN VOERWALD and daughters Mary and Joan of Salida, Colo. were in Umbarger for the week-end visiting the Batenhorst families. This summer the Voerwalds will tour Germany for twenty-six days where they will visit their son Lloyd.

OTHER ISSUES OF THE Canyon News have told of the drive for more subscriptions to the newspaper. If any out-of-town residents wish to receive the paper, please drop me a line at Box 7, Umbarger 79091. I will be happy to take your order and will be most appreciative of the points added to my score in the contest.

MR. AND MRS. TOMMY Brock returned last week from a trip to Las Vegas. Accompanying them were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Pope of Dawn. Besides spending several days in Las Vegas, the group also toured Hoover Dam.

PUTTERING IN HER green house is one of the hobbies of Mrs. Tom Payne. Shirley has tried petunias and carnations before, and she has an orange tree which is touching the ceiling. The non-blooming tree was planted from a seed three years ago. Presently she is growing many tomato plants which she will sell for a nominal fee.

THE ROGERS' OLDER SON, David, along with wife

Bobbie and baby Charles have left and will be stationed at Ft. Bragg. Here's hoping David is home to stay and won't have to return to Viet Nam again. The Rogers family took a little time off and just had a fun trip last week. They went to see Mrs. Rogers Mom and Dad who have retired and live at Davenport about 40 miles northwest of Austin. They brought back some pictures of the lovely bluebonnets and they are sure pretty in full bloom. Sure we had a few down this way. They also visited Marble Falls.

THE GILGILLISES had a houseful of visitors this weekend. Gil's brother and family Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gillis from Garland, Texas were here and daughter Sis.

THE BARRONS LEFT this week for a week's visit to their cabin to do some fishing and Mrs. Barron some painting.

Soldier Is Home While On Leave

PFC Richard N. (Rusty) Peery this week is home on leave, following training at the U.S. Army's Fort Jackson, S.C. base. The soldier will leave Canyon April 17 for a 13-month tour of duty in Korea.

While in Canyon, he is visiting his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. J. Frank Peery and his sister, Stephanie.

He has received commendations as sharpshooter in 90-millimeter recoilless rifles, expert marksman in M-16 rifles and the 106 recoilless rifles and 45-caliber pistols. He took special training in the TOW missile program.

During the upcoming tour of duty in Korea, he will serve as instructor in the use of the TOW missile, and will receive special training in the Army's Ranger program.

The Canyon High School graduate received the National Defense Medal before leaving Fort Jackson recently.

this week. That is Mrs. Buckles mother who moved in the other end of the new addition of the Buckles home. My, my, that house is sure nice. Carpeted basement and all, it is so nice and so is Mrs. Alley. You all must get to know her, she is so nice. So many pretty flowers and plants she has bought to put out, I told her I loved her because she loves flowers and so do I. She has made so many pretty things with her knitting also. So happy she has moved into our little oasis.

THE BURDETTE'S HAD THEIR son from Arlington visit with them this weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Baylen Burdette. Also, I was told they have a new litter of puppies, in fact 6 new little "Barneys".

GLEN AND JUNE VAN Landingham had a very exciting weekend. They belong to the 4-Wheelers Club, which is made up of people having 4-wheel drive vehicles and they all take trips to different places together and enjoy the up and down driving. The club took a trip this weekend to what is known as the "Little Sahara" at Wanaka, Oklahoma. They played in the sand hills and had races and really had a good time. June said there were motorcycles and dune buggies and all sorts of fun things there. They didn't know it till they got there but it was the annual rattlesnake round up for that part of the country, and she said the boys camping next to them came in with two great ole big rattlesnakes and she was all ready to come home.

THE GENEWEBB SUPON McCormick also went along and several others from this area. They met a bunch of other club members there and just had a big conclave.

SAW ALL KINDS OF activities going on around the park this past weekend. New trees being planted, rototilling getting done, new fences being worked on, garden work started, lots being burned off and neighbors just being neighborly across the fences. Guess you might call April clean-up and fix-up month and get acquainted month too.

SOME OF THE DIFFERENT CANDIDATES running for County Commissioner for this precinct have been around visiting with us, it is my sincere wish that each of you might question them thoroughly about their stand on some of the problems that face us here in our little community. I don't want to know what they are going to do for another community, what will they do to provide better roads for us etc. Get with it you guys and don't let them get by with just making a favorable and friendly impression on you, ask a few questions and as far as I'm concerned "I don't know" won't do for an answer to some of the things facing us here!!!

OUR FEATURED FAMILY THIS week is the Leroy Evans at 111 XIT Trail. Barbara and Leroy were raised in Brownfield. Leroy builds churches (Now, isn't that a high calling) and has built over the years some beautiful ones.

BARBARA IS A HOUSE WIFE and Mother to Sherry, 15, and Glenna 13. Leroy is a deacon in our church so I can vouch for him, if you can trust my judgement. Barbara is also very active in church work and teaches the 5&6 grade girls in Sunday School and is GA Director as well. In their spare time they like to garden and always raise a very beautiful and productive garden. Barbara also sews and is really an expert at that, with two daughters you have to be. They are another couple who I consider a privilege to call "Friend and Neighbor."

WELL, HERE'S A LITTLE OLE recipe that is new and thought you might enjoy having it and it comes to me by way of Deann Cooper and thank you to her. COOKIE BAR

1 egg beaten
Boil all this one minute then add to this:

1 c. nuts
1 c. coconut

LINE COOKIE sheet with graham crackers and cover with the mixture and spread all over crackers then top with another cracker and cut into bars.

ONE MORE THING: to Mrs. Paul Tracy Cooper. You haven't gotten the last "BOO" yet.

CHS Golf Team Will Go To AAA Zone Play-Offs

The Canyon High School golf team will battle in the zone play-offs with Muleshoe in Plainview Saturday for the District 1-AAA title.

The Eagle linksters won the northern zone with a 955 total, while Muleshoe captured the southern zone with a 1,001 strokes.

"The Plainview course is about average, but it is pretty long and has greens about the size we are used to. The course is more tailored to high school competition than some we have been playing on the past few weeks," said head coach B. B. Kendrick.

In the northern zone competition, which was held here, the Canyon quintet ripped off a seven stroke lead over Perryton and Dumas. The next week at Dumas, Perryton and Canyon tied, thus maintaining the seven stroke Eagle lead. Three weeks ago in Perryton, Canyon and Perryton golfers tied again, giving Canyon the northern zone championship. Perryton finished with a 962 total and Dumas had 1,025 strokes in the three round affair.

Mike Shadix was the medalist in that zone with rounds of 75, 76 and 77 for a 228 total. Joe Ziegler was the second high with a 231 total.

That Canyon duo will play Kenny Taylor of Muleshoe and Gary Travis of Levelland for district medalist honors in Plainview.

"Muleshoe is going to be tough. They have four of their five team members returning from last year," said Kendrick. But the Canyon golfers in a tournament held here earlier in the year whipped the Muleshoe team by 17 strokes. Last weekend at Amarillo, however, the Muleshoe team shot four strokes better than Canyon. "Last weekend we just shot terrible," said Kendrick. "I feel like we will do much better this week in Plainview."

Regardless of how the playoff turns out in Plainview this weekend both teams will journey to the regional playoffs in Andrews April 21.

FFA Will Hold Award Banquet

Members of Canyon High School's Future Farmers of America will hold their annual achievement Banquet at 7:30 p.m., April 20, in the High School cafeteria.

Jim Walker, FFA instructor, said primary purpose of the banquet is: "to honor parents of our students, parents who have cooperated with us so well."

Officers Are Re-Elected For Co-Op

Melton McGhee of Wayside has been re-elected to serve a three-year term on the board of directors of the Mid-Plains Rural Telephone Cooperative, Inc. Two other directors continue to serve on the board, Earl Reynolds of Canyon and Joe Wieck of Umbarger.

Other members of the board include Bayard Sadler of Vigo Park, Earl Cantwell of Silverton, H. M. Kinsey of Happy, Clyde Wilkins of Tulia, Bruce Fields of Arney, Emery Goodin of Goodnight, Clint Robinson of Kress, and president Victor L. Harman.

During a meeting last week members of the cooperative were told that system-wide single-party service to replace all party lines "could be closer than had been originally planned."

THE SNORKEL MAKES CANYON SAFER

Our community has one of the best volunteer fire departments in the state. This includes both men and equipment. The snorkel, bought primarily to protect high rise dormitories at West Texas State University, was used to good advantage in the recent motel fire here. Canyon is indeed fortunate to have the excellent fire fighting facility at our disposal.

WT Radio Station Begins Operation

Radio KWTS is on the air. The new West Texas State University station began broadcasting at 4 p.m. Wednesday after the Federal Communications Commission had given approval.

Miss Bowes Is FBIA Student

Lynn Bowes was named Student of the Month for March by the Future Business Leaders of America at Canyon High School. A senior, Miss Bowes is a member of the 1972 Class AAA girls' basketball championship team for Texas. She has played basketball for the Girl Eagles throughout her high school years. She is also a member of Future Teachers of America and the National Honor Society. She plans to major in accounting at Texas Tech University.

WTSU Cage Duo Drafted

Steve Davidson, West Texas State University's all-time leading rebounder, and team captain Ralph Houston were drafted Tuesday in the National Basketball Association draft. Davidson went in the seventh round to Cleveland and Houston was a ninth round pick by Chicago. The Chicago team will wait one year for Houston, who has another year of play slated for the Buffaloes.

The 6-7 Davidson, who will play Saturday at Lafayette, La., in the Southern Shooting Stars All-Star game which matches the top collegiate seniors from for operation of the 10-watt FM station, to broadcast from 91.9 megahertz on the radio dial.

KWTS will operate seven days a week, from 4-11 p.m. during the fall and spring semesters. Robert Sanders, speech instructor reported that a prospective summer broadcast program has not yet left the tentative planning stage.

WT journalism students will serve as members of the station's news department, with news programs slated for 4 p.m., 6 p.m., 8 p.m., with sports at 5 p.m., 7 p.m., and 9 p.m.

From 4-7:30 p.m., the music format will include top-40 tunes and country and western music, and from 7:30-9 p.m. "middle-of-the-road" programming will be featured.

Stan Harlan, student in the program, said the station needs records to play on the air. Students or citizens may donate records by stopping by the KWTS radio rooms located in the Fine Arts Building.

The station, he and Sanders said, will also program recorded music on loan from individuals or other sources. Too, the station will purchase records with funds donated by supporters of KWTS.

Buffaloes Compete In Wichita Relays

West Texas State University's track team, after its finest showing in the Texas Relays last weekend, competes Saturday in the Wichita State Relays against four other collegiate teams.

The Buffaloes of coach Bob Kitchens compete Saturday against Wichita State, Arkansas, Tulsa and the Air Force Academy.

Carl Brown placed second in the Texas Relays behind former world record holder Thomas Hill. Brown ran 14.0 and Hill had a 13.9 clocking. That race was run into a 10-mile per hour wind.

Kirk Johnson, the big freshman from Aledo, placed fifth in Austin with a school record 174-5 effort in the discus.

Kitchens is working this week on several injury problems. Sprinter Jesse Lethridge and quarter-milers Tracy Dickson and Steve Cone all have muscle problems in their legs and their condition for Saturday's meet is not yet determined. Vaulter Warren Snow, who turned an ankle last week in practice and didn't compete in Austin, is also questionable.

With the injuries, Kitchens is worried over his team's chances of making a bid for the title at Wichita. Not only could the injured athletes not be well by that time, but their injuries would also reflect on the Buffalo relay teams.

Canyon's Turpin On Winning Cast

Steve Turpin of Canyon was a member of the all-star cast of one-act play competition in the recent District AAAA University Interscholastic League Play Contest at West Texas State University, held on campus.

Turpin was among nine students from area communities named Thursday as members of the all-star cast.

Buffalo Baseballers Open Home Schedule

After rolling up a 14-6 record away from home, West Texas State's baseball team opens its home season at 3 p.m. Friday in Amarillo's Potter County Stadium against Hardin-Simmons.

The same two teams will clash Saturday at the same site in a doubleheader, starting at 1 p.m.

The Buffaloes hit the ball at a .297 clip this year in their first 20 games and are led by Jim Albracht, who has a .436 average. Albracht divides time in right field with pitcher Kenny Grounds, who is hitting a .347 clip.

Kerry Morgan, in appearances as both a pitcher and outfielder, is hitting .409.

The biggest stick among regulars is third baseman Lanny Phillips, who is hitting .395 with 20 runs batted in. He also leads in most of the extra base departments with seven doubles, two triples and two home runs. The Odessa sophomore has seven stolen bases to also lead in that department.

First baseman Allen Runyan carries a .358 average. Rick Hammerick, in limited appearances as an infielder, is hitting .308. Second baseman Rick Rusten is hitting .302.

Catcher Jerry McVickers, who has worked in 16 games, is hitting .298. Catcher-outfielder Willie Taylor has a .294 average and left fielder Tony Cazzelle is hitting .293. Shortstop Dean Parker has a .280 mark. Mark Stanley, who has played a pair of outfield positions when he is not pitching, has a .275 average.

Charles Crouch, junior left-hander, has a 2.0 pitchup mark with a .74 earned run average. Senior David Sharp is 2.0 win with a 2.62 ERA. Stanley has compiled a 2-1 mark and a 1.23 ERA. Ground also has a 2-1 record and a 3.82 ERA. Dave Lewis, the other starter, is 2-2 with a 2.97 ERA.

Netters Set OU Match

West Texas State's tennis team opens its toughest week of play thus far this season by playing at Norman, Okla., Wednesday against the University of Oklahoma.

The Buffaloes have a 14-4 record for the year, but one of those losses was a 5-4 decision dropped to the University of Oklahoma in the Corpus Christi Tournament.

After the Oklahoma match, the Buffaloes began play Thursday in the Oklahoma City University Tournament. Teams entered in that event are OCU, Oklahoma, Oral Roberts, Arkansas, North Texas State, Kansas and Wichita State.

OCU has one of the nation's better tennis teams. ORU and West Texas have split in a pair of matches. West Texas defeated ORU in the WTSU tourney and Oral Roberts came back to defeat West Texas, 5-4, in the finals of its own tournament.

West Texas players and their season records are Paul Tobin, 12-5; Mike Bolton, 14-4; John Phillips, 12-6; Dale Corbin, 13-3; Steve Bailey, 12-4; and Joe Carrick, 9-2.

Bolton and Corbin have the top doubles record, playing in the number two position, 15-3. Phillips and Tobin have played number one most of the season and carry a 13-5 record. Bailey and Carrick are 7-2 for the year.

West Texas plays Arkansas in the opening round of the ORU tourney. Others are Wichita-Oklahoma, ORU-Kansas and OCU-North Texas.

Baylor Club Plans Bicycle Cavalcade

The Panhandle Baylor Club will ride a bicycle from Amarillo to Heart Of Texas Coliseum in Waco in five days, according to Ed Phelps of Amarillo.

The Bicycle Cavalcade will leave Amarillo at 8 a.m. Monday and is scheduled to arrive in the coliseum at 1 p.m. Saturday.

Phelps said that some 50-60 students are paying $20 for the privilege of riding (or not riding) in the Cavalcade. The riders are scheduled to arrive in the A & W Root Beer Drive Inn at 10:30 a.m. Monday.

Dr. Dudley Moore will be chairman of the riders from Canyon to Tulsa. The Cavalcade is to promote the Second Annual Gold-Carpet and the Bear Downs bicycle race which will be held at Baylor on Saturday.

The Cavalcade and Bear Downs is to help raise money for student scholarships.

What's This? Mens Lib!

BY BENNY TURNER

What's this? Men's lib! Not too long ago, a friend of mine, who will go unnamed and who also was a longhair or hippie or whatever you choose to call it, decided to get his long flowing locks cut.

Understand, this was a major decision, one that he had mulled over for almost six months. Several months ago he went as far as to have three or four inches cut off, but considering the length of his hair that did not mean just a whole lot.

The big question was where. He had a 2:30 job interview, the clock said it was one, which did not leave him very much time. By 1:30 he had called every styling shop in the panhandle and not one could get to him that afternoon. Rather than give him a chance to change his mind, I suggested that he call a beauty salon. I figured the only people with the experience in cutting a head of hair like his would be a beauty salon.

Needless to say the young gentleman was not overly enthusiastic, but by now frantic he accepted the idea with the provision that I make the appointment and go with him.

I casually strolled into the salon, planning on an afternoon of fun watching them whack away. But my confidence along with my friend's melted into thin air.

It was kind of a sickening feeling like I was walking into the sacred gossip room, where men were just about as welcome as the plague.

The women's eyes got as big around as silver dollars, evidently horrified that someone other than her hairdresser knew for sure.

My friend and I were also horrified, but with wobbly knees and a dry mouth he sat down in the beautician's chair not all sure this was what he wanted to do.

It turned out our apprehension was not justified and it was probably our eyes that got so wide rather than the woman's.

We were told by the owner of the salon, Betty Patterson, that it has been only since mid-January that licensed beauticians were allowed to cut men's hair. Before that time women could get their hair cut in barber shops, but according to the law it seems as though men were just not welcome in a women's beauty salon. "Men's hair seems to be nicer than women's," said Mrs. Patterson. "It usually has not been subjected to all the various types of treatment women's hair has and men can get by with a more casual look."

"But it is not easier or harder to work on men's hair," she quickly added.

Oppe, Turpin Win Contest

Thomas Oppe won first, and Steve Turpin, second, in the Class AAA division of a high school mathematics contest sponsored by the West Texas State University mathematics department Tuesday, according to Dr. Hollis Cook, chairman. Both winners are students at Canyon High School.

Third place in that division went to Don Cosby of Tulsa. In Class B, second place went to Patrick Acker of Nazareth.

In Class A, Pat Hillman won first and Susan Allen, second. Both are from Kress.

Overall winner was Dan Stebbins of Tascosa High School, Amarillo. He scored 101 out of a possible 120.

A big question remained in my mind after the ordeal. Will the male chavaniests swallow their pride and become regular customers of beauty salons? Will we take advantage of our newly found freedom?

"Through the years attitudes have changed a great deal, but I don't think that we have to worry about being overrun with men customers. Although I think the younger men are going more and more to the methods used in women's salons today," Mrs. Patterson said.

A beauticians training is quite different than for barbers, according to Mrs. Patterson. "We don't use electric clippers. Maybe we are more practiced at being precise, because we try to consider the stature of a person."

"But the barbers have changed quite a bit and I certainly don't think they will sit still if they think the beauticians are going to take away some of their business. I do think the idea is a little more cosmopolitan, than we are accustomed to in Canyon," Mrs. Patterson concluded.

So men what are we going to do, swallow our pride and be "cosmopolitan" or are we, just going to continue being plain old male chauvanists?

By the way my friend was pleased with his haircut, but still not certain that he wanted to return to a beauty salon.

Hunsley Pro-Am Held

An Appreciation Pro-Am tournament was held at Hunsley Hills golf course Monday for Joe Houck and John Farquhar.

The team of Troy Badgett, Max Hickey, Bob Haile and Martha Badgett toured the course in 59 strokes to win the tourney.

Five teams tied for second two strokes behind the winning team. The teams were Bob Baker, Jim Thurmond, Dee and Joan Miller; Jim Terry, Bob Henry, Bob Smith and Mrs. Claude Sloan; Butch Mitchell, Gary Fletcher, John Williams and Doug Vaughn; Dick Weston, Mickey Pearsall, Joe Frazier and Ray Williams; and Randall Burton, Junior Salinas, Eugene Cryer and Pete Galyear.

Low Pro of the tourney was Baker who fired a 71, Lloyd Carter had 72 strokes over the 18 holes, Houck, Wilson Sweeney, Warren and Mitchell all shot a 73.

Jody Richardson was the low amateur with a 78.

Rites Held For Warren

The First Annual Hunsley Hills Partnership tourney will be held May 6-7. The tourney will be a 36-hole low ball, stroke play affair. Entry fee for the 12 team per flight tourney is $35.

L. A. Warren of Abilene who died last week at 73 in Abilene used to run a grocery store in the east part of Canyon.

His brother, W.A., operated a dry goods store.

L.A. had already tried his hand at wildcatting and yearned to be looking again for black gold.

He pointed out to his brother that retailing was not promising.

"Well, anybody who'd bet an eight inch hole against the surface of the globe can't be very smart," his brother admonished.

L.A. became a wildcatter anyway. Going broke became a way of life with him but he won more than he lost and became one of West Texas' most successful operators.

His story was in many ways that of the West Texas oil industry for he had the traits necessary for this unusual business, courage and tenacity, honesty, imagination and the ability to change with the changing techniques of oil exploration and development.

Mr. Warren did not fit the Eastern Establishment's concept of the boastful, arrogant Texas oil tycoon. He was a quiet, cultured educated man, a most happy fellow who was devoted to family and church, servant to good community projects. He typified his industry and the great benefits it has brought to this region.

Ball Tryouts Set Friday

Tryouts for the major leagues will be held in the Little League park Friday and Saturday.

The 11 and 12-year old tryouts will be at 4:30 p.m. Friday, while the 10-year old tryouts will be at 8:30 a.m. Saturday, said Richard Pruett. Ages and dates of birth are as follows: age 12, Aug. 1, 1959, through July 31, 1960; age 11, Aug. 1, 1960 through July 31, 1961; age 10, Aug. 1, 1961 through July 31, 1962; age 9, Aug. 1, 1962 through July 31, 1963; age 8, Aug. 1, 1963 through July 31, 1964.

Boys who reach their 13th birthday before Aug. 1, 1972, must play in the Babe Ruth League, and boys who do not reach their 8th birthday before Aug. 1, 1972, must wait until next year to play ball, Pruett added.

"Boys who will be playing in the 8 and 9-year-old league will not be contacted until about May 15. Anyone interested in working in the LL in any capacity should call 655-8897 or 655-4557," Pruett concluded.

Louder said he could not predict whether the commissioners will get an immediate response from the bonding officials Monday in New York.

The Canyon delegation is expected to return late Monday evening.

Financial Adviser Davis earlier had urged the commission to undertake the trip, so that the city can exercise its call option and refund $455,000 in water works and sewer bonds issued in 1957, which will result in a saving to the city of some $73,000 in future annual interest charges, over a 10-year period.

If the commission is successful and receives a better rating for Canyon Monday, Louder explained, "we can refund this current issue at a more advantageous interest rate."

Making the trip will be Louder, Bryan, Jim Christopher, Dr. Willis Harrison, Felix Pierce and H. R. Fulton, Jr.

His report showed $5,355 in tax collection during March. "That," he added, "is a record." The report included collection of: recording fees, $2,778; financing statements, $1,180.50; miscellaneous (marriage licenses, etc.), $798; probate fees, $537; and civil fees, $55.50.

In other action, commissioners Monday okayed a bid for addition of lighting facilities in the county's district courtroom. The bid was submitted by Wayne Wirt Electric of Canyon, and the amount accepted was $1,222.80. Three other, higher, bids were rejected.

Wirt Electric was also awarded a contract for lighting fixtures to be placed in the county tax office in south Amarillo. This one was in the amount of $978.72. Two other, higher, bids were rejected in favor of Wirt.

Bids on sheriff's automobiles were tabled, unopened, pending next week's commission session, as were bids on new air conditioning for the sheriff's office.

The commission went into executive session to discuss a personnel matter before final adjournment.

Improvement Is Key For Gridders--Mayfield

After the first of four weeks of football spring drills West Texas State's coaching staff is elated with the work of the 72-man squad, but head Coach Gene Mayfield put his finger on the key.

"We made progress in the first days of practice, but the important thing is how much we improve during the next three weeks," said Mayfield. "We have 38 sophomores and some of those fellows must come through and play well without much experience behind them."

The Buffaloes entered spring training with only 18 lettermen back from last year's 2-9 season. Of the sophomores, 27 are up from the freshman team and the remainder are transfers and try-outs.

"The overall attitude of the squad, rather than outstanding progress, was most pleasing," said the head coach. "I hate to even mention injuries, but we got through the first week with only one."

Red shirt sophomore Clyde Adcock, who has had a knee problem all this year, reinjured the knee and it is not known how long he will be out. Returning regular linebacker Willis Haws was held out of hitting Saturday and Monday due to a slight knee strain. Walter Hibbler who

Schools To Hold Parents' Meetings

Meetings for next fall's first-graders and their parents have been planned at Rex Reeves and Gene Howe School.

The parents of six-year-olds and the children will meet at Rex Reeves at 1:45 April 20. The Gene Howe group will meet at 1:45 May 4.

The schools have planned get-acquainted sessions for both parents and children.

Parents who do not receive letters should get in touch with the school closer to them, officials say. Letters from Rex Reeves have been mailed. Those from Gene Howe will go out toward the end of April.

Gene Howe plans to invite next year's beginners to attend a program put on by this year's first grade early in May.

Women Tour WT Museum

Some 160 women toured the Panhandle-Plains Museum and the West Texas State Activities Center Thursday.

The women are members of the West Texas Judges' Wives association.

The group began the tour at 10 a.m. at the museum, with tour of the center to follow.

missed the first week of drills with a kidney injury, returned to practice Monday.

The Buffaloes will be given a day off Tuesday before returning to practice Wednesday. The first full scrimmage session will be at 2 p.m. Saturday in Kimbrough Stadium. Another scrimmage is slated for the following Saturday afternoon before the final spring game Friday, May 5.

Each of Coach Mayfield's assistants were pleased with their charges after the first week. Some of the comments follow:

Defensive line coach Jerry Behrens: "We have a long way to go, but did make progress. The two players inside at present are lettermen Robert Jensen and Bill Tricani. Behind them are sophomore Ben Field and letterman Larry Wiens. Larry made some improvement during the last three workouts of the week. At ends, Tony Borman and Ben Bentley had good practices, as did Kenny Donothan."

Offensive backfield coach Jim Dawson: "We have a battle for the quarterback post. Sophomore Mike Wartes and Ron Leach are the leaders now, but ex-Marine Robert Sweat hasn't been in contact work yet due to a knee operation. He has certainly shown signs of being the kind we need to run the offense. Sophomore Robert Edwards is showing improvement at quarterback and Amarillo's Bobby Nowak, even though he transferred in at the semester and must layout for a year and a half, is working hard."

"We moved Billy Pritchett to fullback because we feel the fullback is the key backfield man in our type of Wishbone-T offense.

Billy is big, strong and much quicker than he was last year. His best suit is running down field with the ball. Letterman David Land is progressing at fullback and David Diedrich moved from tight end back to fullback and is accepting the challenge."

Cole Fraley and Jimmy Lisle are working at the halfback positions. Jimmy has a great deal to learn, but has talent. Inexperience is his only holdup. The most pleasant surprise is the play of Rusty Tucker. We moved him to halfback from fullback to take advantage of his good quickness and he has responded with outstanding effort. Sophomore Johnny Jackson is working at both halfback positions and at fullback. Learning two positions has slowed him somewhat, but he is a good blocker and runs down the field like a wishbone back needs to do. Roosevelt Jackson has great leadership and is also working at both halfback positions."

Dawson also said split receivers Kenneth Sellers and David Cleveland are doing well. He said Sellers, the sophomore speedster from Corwell, has outstanding natural talent and Cleveland, a tryout from Odessa, makes an effort to catch every ball thrown in his direction. Cleveland is also a secondary player.

Defensive secondary coach Leldon Hensley, "The attitudes and work habits are more like what we expect. We didn't have to drive the players to do the work. Everyone is trying to make the team and don't mind working to make it. Daryl Carr (a returning regular), Steve Sydow and Merle Kilpatrick have shown that they have played before. The sophomores—Scott Hindman, Juan Garza and Acadio Rivera—are continuing the progress they made on last year's freshman team. Tryouts Stan Wilson and Scott Doores, as well as Johnny McDowell, are all making improvement. If Doores continues to improve he will soon start to contest for a position. Reed Tolles made progress every day and Cecil Hood came along. Hood was slowed with a sore knee."

Linebacker coach Dean Rudd, "It was a good learning week. It is hard to single out players, but they all made progress. Willis Haws lettered at linebacker last year and he is in front of where he was a year ago. Joe Brock's experience is helping him there in the middle and squadman Bobby Hobbs is playing well. Working on the same side with Willis are sophomores Gary Weaver, Kurt Kinsinger and Dennis Duniven. Brock, sophomores Bruce Davis, Alton Cranford and tryout Eddie Hickman from Littlefield are at the middle backer position. Hobbs, David Herber and Steve Rogers are working at the other outside spot, along with David Harper, who transferred at the semester from Arkansas State and will have to lay out a year and a half. This group doesn't have a great deal of speed, but I think the players will have good discipline."

Offensive line coach W. P. "Chip" Van Pelt, "I was pleased with the teaching we were able to do this week. At tight end, sophomore Merced Solis is probably in front right now, but squadman Attila Vagh is making a strong effort. Tommy Brownfield came out from the basketball team last week. It has been a while since he played, but he made improvement. Gary Fennell, letterman James Hankins and transfer Carroll Marriott all did well at tackle. Sophomore Ed Alford, Gerald Chisholm and Jim Hart made progress. Allen Mullins and Ronnie Bassett came along at the guard positions and Billy Taylor put some good work in at his position. Mike Casas, another squadman, also worked hard at guard. Transfer Mike Delaney did well, but is a little behind because he is new to the system, as is Fennell. Both transferred from junior colleges at the semester. Don White and Henry Hamilton, a pair of sophomores, have some quickness about them at center. We moved transfer tryout Mike Gerken from defense to center and he could help us at that position."
